John West Commissioner

Commissioners Office

Alexandria Virginia

October 27th 1870.

To the County Court of Alexandria County:

Your Commissioner reports to the Court that on the 10th day of September last William J. Boothe the Executor of Mrs. Eliza T. Fowler deceased, exhibited before your Commissioner a statement of all the money, which he, the said Executor had received or become chargeable with or had disbursed from the 6th day of June to the 29th day of August last together with the vouchers for such disbursements. That the Commissioner embraced the said Executor in the list of fiduciaries, whose accounts were before him for settlement which was posted at the front door of the Court house of said County, on the first day of October Court 1870, and on the date of this report, (ten days having elapsed since the said account was mentioned in the said list) made up and completed an account of the said William J. Boothes administration, of the estate of the said Eliza T. Fowler, deceased, and on the 29th day of August last, finds that the said Executor has expended the whole of the funds in his hands, leaving no balance due the estate aforesaid.

The account is supported by satisfactory vouchers and is herewith returned.

Given under my hand, as commissioner of the said Court, on the day and year first aforesaid;

John West Commissioner

Time employed by the commissioner in examining vouchers and in stating, settling and reporting the said account with copies of the same, 10 hours or minutes $10.00/100 Commissioner's fee, charged to William J. Boothe executor as aforesaid.

John West Commissioner

Alexandria County Court Dec 5th 1870.

In the matter of William J. Boothe Executor of Eliza T. Fowler deceased. It appearing to the Court from the report of John West Commissioner returned on the fifth day of December 1870 and to which there are no exceptions taken that the said Executor has made full distribution of all the assets that came into his hands, as such Executor, and that his final account has been settled and reported, the said report is hereby confirmed. And it further appears to the Court that the said Executor has taken from the legates, good and sufficient refunding Bonds conditioned as the statute in such cases made and provided directly, in order to release him the said Executor from personal liability on his said Executorial Bond.
