

Among the other instances of the unfairness (to call it by no harsher name) of the Richmond Enquirer, we are indebted to the Yeoman for the following: The Enquirer some time since published among its extracts, where one may always look for the forest and most indefensible assaults upon Gen. Harrison, (the Editor seeming to be somewhat more conscientious in his editorials than in his selections,) an article from an Ohio paper referring to the fact that in 1816 the U. S. Senate had struck Gen. Harrison's name from a resolution, proposing medals and a vote of thanks to himself and Gov. Shelby. Now, the Enquirer knows that the erasure of Gen. Harrison's name was caused by certain reports derogatory to his character, which had been put into circulation by his enemies: "For Envy will Merit, as its shade, pursue."

These reports, however, were submitted to the scrutiny of a committee of investigation of the House of Representatives, at the solicitation of Gen. Harrison himself. And what was the result? An editorial article in the Enquirer or February 6, 1817, tells us—"It is scarcely necessary (says that paper) for us to repeat the warm sentiments of respect which we entertain for Gen. Wm. Henry Harrison." (Indeed! how different from its present tone!) "During the late war, we have respectfully borne our humble testimony to the gallant hero of the armies of the Northwest"—(the same man whom the Globe and Enquirer are endeavoring to prove imbecile and a coward!) "An envious cloud however, (quoth the Enquirer of 1817,) gathered around his head, which is now finally and forever dispersed." The report of the committee, whose investigation Gen. Harrison himself demanded, is conclusive upon the subject. And yet the Enquirer is now endeavoring to throw around the old hero's head that same "envious cloud" which it declared in 1817 was forever dispersed. Shame! where is thy blush! What confidence can the people repose in a paper which thus condemns itself—Lynch, Virg.

We noticed in our last the conviction of James, a slave of Mr. Jacob Judy, for burglary. On Wednesday last, Lewis, a free boy, was tried, and sentenced to 10 years imprisonment in the Penitentiary—on Thursday, Nelson, another slave, the property of Mr. Judy was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to be hung on the 23d day of May next—on Friday, James Smith, a white man, was tried and sent on for further trial at the next term of the Superior Court which meets on the 16th of April. All these persons were tried for breaking open the dwelling house of Mr. John Buchanan, and stealing therefrom money and other articles of value.—LEXINGTON STAR.

PENNSYLVANIA BANKS. The Resumption Bill, as amended by the Senate of Pennsylvania, was before the House on Friday and Saturday. On Friday, Mr. Higgins moved to strike out the provision which makes a distinction between the note holders and depositors—the motion was negatived, 46 to 47.—On Saturday a motion was made and carried, to reconsider the vote on Friday, just mentioned above. In the course of the debate which followed, Mr. McElwaine (a leading Administration member) declared that he would not vote for the bill. He said it would never be approved by the Governor or the people.—Mr. Higgins, in his speech in favor of the motion to strike out the clause making a distinction between note holders and depositors, asserted that the passage of the bill with the clause would have the effect of destroying every country bank in the Commonwealth. The question finally recurred on adopting the section as proposed to be amended by Mr. Higgins' motion, and the amendment was agreed to, 49, 41. An adjournment then took place.

It is stated by a New Orleans paper, that Mr. Miller, the clerk of Mr. Steubergen, who disappeared so mysteriously some time since, has arrived in Texas with a large number of negroes, and intends to locate in that country.

The N. Y. American states that orders from England which had been received in that city for the purchase of the best Western Flour at $5 50 per bbl., have been countermanded by the Great Western. Orders for good fair Cotton are also limited to 8 cents.

The Philadelphia National Gazette says: "We learn from private sources that Mr. Jaudon has effected a final arrangement for the Dutch loan of five and a half millions of guilders to the Bank of the U. States."

A defalcation to the amount of $50,000 has been discovered in the Manhattan Bank, New York, in the accounts of the 1st Teller, Mr. Newcomb. When called upon to account for the deficiency, he immediately left the bank, and has neither returned nor been found.—This has created a good deal of sensation, for Mr. Newcomb was a highly trusted officer.

Bills of Credit.—The Legislature of Indiana has authorized the issue of a million and a half of dollars in the form of State Notes, half of the denomination of $5; and half of $50.

COMMUNICATION.

LYNCHBURG, Va. Nov. 20, 1839.

DR. J. KUHLE, Richmond, Va. Dear Sir:—We have been nearly five years Agents for the sale of your Medicines, and it gives us pleasure to inform you of the great success in the many cases performed by them, particularly in cases where they were long in the system, and where the patients had little hope of recovery. It would take too much space to give a special account of every cure, but we have to state, that the RESTORER OF THE BLOOD, with its secondary Remedies, have, in the following diseases, proved infallible, viz: Tetter and Eruptions, Venereal Disorders, Dyspepsia, Chronic Liver Complaint, Bilious Affections, Rheumatism, Irregularities, &c.

The ARYSSINIA MIXTURE is in great demand, and not one cure has failed to our knowledge. The ANTI-SYPHILITIC SYRUP, has proved effective, and that in many obstinate cases.

Many Physicians in our neighborhood, who have used your Medicines in their practice, have given their opinion as to its being very valuable—efficient, and whenever it is in their power, recommend them; so that you may be assured our sales are of some consequence. We herewith send you our monthly return. Yours very respectfully, DINKLE & RUMBOUGH.

All communications must be directed (post-paid) to DR. KUHLE'S Office, in Richmond, Va.
