

Felix Gilbert, 250 acres Moss (?) Creek, corner William Grege, 1751
 John Gillmore, 66 acres forks of James corner his patent land, 1754
 Mathew Hare, 80 acres forks of James, 1769
 John Hinton, 210 acres Muddy Creek corner Johnson Hill, 1752
 Archibald Hopkins, 260 acres Anthonys Creek, 1751
 William Hopkins, 600 acres Anthonys Creek, 1751
 James Hughart, 85 acres Sinking Creek about a mile below the land of Charles Lewis, 1769
 James Hughart, 175 acres Sinking Creek, 1769
 Hugh Johnston, 162 acres north side Greenbrier, 1769
 William Kenny, 200 acres Greenbrier, 1769
 Charles Kinnison, 205 acres on northwest side Greenbrier, corner to Andrew Lewis's Falling Spring survey, 1769
 James Knox, 105 acres on Second Creek, 1769
 Andrew Lewis, 500 acres northwest side Greenbrier, at a place known as Falling Spring in Thorny Bottom, 1751
 Andrew Lewis, 175 acres Wolf Creek, joining Baughmans, 1754
 Charles Lewis, 230 acres Sinking Creek, at a place where Murphy lived, 1769
 John Lewis, 66 acres Ewings Creek, about a mile and a half above the mouth of said creek, 1769
 William Lewis, 540 acres Clover Lick Creek, 1769
 James McCoy, 100 acres northwest side of Sinking Creek, 1769
 John McCoy, 76 acres south side Sinking Creek adjoining Larence Murphy, 1769
 William McCoy, 160 acres on branch of Sinking Creek, corner James McCoy, 1769
 John Madison, 750 acres called McMullens Crabtree Bottom, 1751; assigned to son Richard Madison, 1780, witnesses John Madison, Jr. and Rowd [Rowland] Madison.
 William Man, 140 acres Sinking Creek, near the sink of the Creek, 1769
 Moses Moore, 44 acres near path between widow Gregres and the mouth of Ewings Creek, 1769
 Larence Murphy, 115 acres northwest side Sinking Creek, corner John McCoy, 1769
 Philip Rambough, 212 acres east side Muddy Branch, 1752
 William Rennicks, 215 acres both sides Spring Lick, including Cave Spring, 1751
 William Rennix, 156 acres corner Stuffalmire's old survey, 1769

BOTETOURT COUNTY:

Joseph Alexander, 290 acres, Little Meadows, North Fork of Roanoke, 1773
 Elizabeth Allison, 105 acres on Second Creek, adjoining John Humphreys, 1774
 James Anderson 77 acres, Head Wolf Creek, 1774
 John Anderson, 370 acres, an old survey made for Abraham Ears 1751 this survey, 1774
 John Anderson, 200 acres by virtue of warrant under the Proclamation of 1763 to Francis Bourn and assigned to Alexander Waugh, and he to Richard Morris, and he to Anderson, both sides of Greenbrier at mouth of Howards Creek, joining Abraham Ears, 1775
 James Arbuckle, 380 acres Sinks of Greenbrier, adjoining Andrew Ralston, William Craig, Alexander Kelly, and Solomon Wright, 1774
 John Archer, 250 acres west side Greenbrier, 1774
 Robert Armstrong, 150 acres Middle Fork of (torn) Creek, joining John Ward's, 1774
 Adam Barnes, 70 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 Ozias Barnes, 57 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 Lazarus Bartley, 212 acres adjoining Edward Kennison, 1774
 George Blackburn, 360 acres including 325 acres surveyed for the company in 1751, on the Indian Path at a place called the "Homeny Block" joining William Massicer, 1774
 James Blair, 230 acres west side Greenbrier, adjoining Andrew Smith and Joshua Buckley, 1774
 William Blair, 205 acres both sides of Greenbrier, including 65 acres surveyed for Spencer Cooper in 1774, this survey 1776
 William Blanton, 200 acres on sinks of Greenbrier, joining Thomas Stewart, Archebald Hanley and Garret Green, 1774
 Francis Boggs, 100 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 James Boggs, 75 acres on Spring Lick, 1774
 James Boggs, 210 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 James Boggs, Junr., 190 acres Spring Lick Branch, corner to Francis Boggs and _____McNease
 William Boggs, 184 acres Spring Lick Creek, 1774
 Robert Boyd, 160 acres at foot of "Soaps Nob" on east side, 1774
 Wallace Braton, 155 acres on Great Levels, adjoining John Stewart, 1774
 John Bredger, 87 acres North Fork of Oswego Branch, 1774
 John Brown, 350 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 Robert Brown, 190 acres corner Kincade, opposite an island, 1774
 Samuel Brown, 460 acres adjoining John McClanahan, 1774

Samuel Brown and Samuel Lewis, 180 acres Great Levels, on a great savanah, joining William Johnston, Michael Daugherty, Charles Lewis, and Archer Mathews surveys, 1776
 Samuel Brown, 66 acres opposite head of Cove Creek, 1776
 Thomas Buck, 200 acres fork of Oswego Branch, 1774
 Joshua Buckley, 34 acres Rich Mountain, joining Andrew Smith and James Blair, 1774
 James Bundle, 287 acres on Little Levels, corner John Poag, 1774
 James Burns, 150 acres head of Sinking Spring Branch joining Thomas Spencer and John McCauslen, 1774
 James Burnside, 237 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 James Caine, 275 acres including part of a survey of 500 acres divided between Caine and Samuel Price, on west side Greenbrier joining Arnold Custard and Daniel Murley, 1774
 James Callison, 589 acres north side Greenbrier, 1774
 John Callison, 260 acres in Valley above Spring Lick Creek, 1774
 William Callison, 150 acres Valley above Spring Lick Creek, joining William Stevinson and John Callison, 1774
 Edward Carvin, 59 acres Johns Creek, a branch of James River, north side of creek, corner Wooldrick's, 1771
 William Cavendish, 350 acres Big Sinking Creek, joining survey of Charles Lewis, 1774
 John Clark, 360 acres corner Samuel Brown, 1774
 Joseph Claypole, 315 acres on Mile Creek including survey for Claypole 1774, adjoining Richard Humphrey's survey, 1775
 John Clendening, 360 acres in Sink Holes, joining Garret Green, Andrew Lewis, Jacob Massie and John Grey, 1774
 Charles Clendinen, 370 acres corner John Davison, 1774
 Thomas Cook, 40 acres west side Greenbrier, near Patrick Lockhart's survey, 1774
 Thomas Cooper, 78 acres Indian Creek, joining survey of Charles Lewis, 1774
 William Cooper, 125 acres Sinking Creek, north side of Spring Lick Mountain, 1774
 Ash Craftroach, 230 acres on Rich Land Creek, joining John Daugherty and James Warren, 1774
 William Craig, 430 acres on Second Creek, joining James Arbuckle, Andrew Ralston, Isaac Nickols and Joseph Nickols, 1774
 John Craine, 90 acres Weavers Nob joining survey for George Weaver and Andrew Lewis's Rich Land Survey, 1774
 William Crawford, 256 acres adjoining David Stinson, 1774
 Joseph Currey, 170 acres Second Creek between Richard Dixon and Thomas Nickols, 1774
 Christian Curtner, 100 acres on Greenbrier, 1774
 Arnold Custard, 230 acres on Great Levels joining Daniel Murley, James Caine, James McClung and George Davison, on the Warrior Road, 1774
 George Cutlip, 95 acres between Brushy Mountain and William Stevinson, 1774
 John Daugherty, 210 acres on Great Levels, joining James Millican and Ash Craftroach, 1774
 Joseph Daugherty, 154 acres at Sink Holes, joining John Madison, Robert Thompson and John Grey's survey, 1774
 Michael Daugherty, 395 acres corner John McClanahan and _____ Johnston, 1774
 Thomas David, 90 acres Levels of Greenbrier, including Cave Spring, 1774
 George Davinson, 540 acres Great Levels, joining Daniel Murley, Charles Lewis, and his own land, 1774
 Aaron Davis, 100 acres on Muddy Creek, 1775
 Henry Davis, 50 acres in edge of a savanah, 1774
 Jacob Davis, 330 acres Muddy Creek, including a survey for 236 acres for said Davis, 1774, adjoining survey of Alexander Wright, 1775
 James Davis, 125 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek, adjoining Lee's [or See's?] line, 1774
 James Davis (a cooper), 283 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek adjoining Lee's [or See's?] line, 1774
 John Davis, 210 acres Levels of Greenbrier, adjoining John Ellis, Nathen Gillilonand [Gillilon in text] and Edward Kinnison, 1774
 John Davis, 369 acres 1774
 Robert Davis, 40 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek, 1774
 George Davison, 220 acres Great Levels, joining Robert McClenachen and Arnold Custurd, 1774
 Samuel Davison, 130 acres branch of Cove Creek, between the Sink of Cove Creek and the Greenbrier, adjoining Charles Lewis, 1776
 John Day, 68 acres both sides Greenbrier, 1774
 Nathaniel Day, 400 acres Little Levels, joining John Day's survey including 300 acres surveyed for said Day, 1769, this survey 1774
 Samuel Delany, 52 acres Stephens Hole Branch, adjoining John Poag, 1774
 Patrick Dickson, 65 acres Woolf Creek, 1774
 Joseph Dixon, 220 acres Howards Creek below Patrick Davis, 1774

Richard Dixon, 190 acres Second Creek joining Joseph Nickols and Joseph Williams including 95 acres surveyed for Robert Knox 1769, this survey 1774

Andrew Donally, 205 acres in Glades below Sinking Creek, 1774

Charles Donally, 700 acres on branches of Sinking Creek, joining Charles Lewis, Joseph McClung surveys, 1774

James Donally, 150 acres Hughart's Creek, below (torn) Hart's Survey, 1774

Andrew Donoly, 243 acres part of a survey containing 485 acres for William Mann and John McClanahan, 1769 and assigned to Donoly, corner to Bryan's place, 1774

William Dune, 60 acres west side Weavers Nob joining John Craine and Andrew Lewis's Rich Land survey, 1774

John Dyer, 240 acres Great Levels, joining Andrew Lewis's Rich Lands, 1774

William Dyer, 135 acres Great Levels, joining John Dyer's survey, 1774

James Edmonson, 258 acres adjoining Charles Clendennen's Corner, 1774

William Elliot, see Christopher Wahub

John Ellis, 260 acres Little Levels, joining John Davis and Edward Kinnison, 1774

Thomas Ellis, 85 acres Burns Creek, joining William Cavendish, 1775

William Ellum, 320 acres Foot of Little Nob, joining James Thompson, 1774

Peter Elmburk, 70 acres Greenbrier, not dated (1770's?)

Robert Erwin, 104 acres joining his own and Robert Hamilton on _____ Creek, branch of James River, including 80 acres surveyed for Patrick McConnell 1768 and assigned June 5, 1772.

John Evans, 170 acres Woolf Creek, beginning at Swoob's corner, 1774

John and William Ewing, 90 acres west side Greenbrier, north side of Buckeye Mountain, 1774

John Ewing, 49 acres west side Greenbrier, below the mouth of Beaver Lick Creek, 1774

John Ewing, 98 acres west side Rich Mountain joining James Ewing's survey, 1774

Joshua Ewing, 270 acres north side Greenbrier, 1774

William Femster, 860 acres Mill Creek, branch of Muddy Creek, including 600 acres surveyed for Frederick Hanger 1752, now the property of Femster, corner to Griffin, 1775

Hugh Galaspy, 390 acres including 230 acres for Galaspy surveyed 1769 on west side Nob joining Andrew Lewis, 1774

John Gilkinson, Junr. 125 acres west side Greenbrier, joining land of William Elliot and James Gillilon, 1774

John Gilkinson, 165 acres on Greenbrier adjoining William Rennick, 1774

Samuel Gilleland, 50 acres Locust Branch, 1774

James Gillilon, 510 acres including 396 acres survey for Gillilon, 1774, corner Robert Brown and Kincade, 1776

Nathen Gillilon, 435 acres Little Levels of Greenbrier, joining Charles Clennedening and John Davis, including 300 acres surveyed for said Gillilon 1774, date of this survey, 1776

Thomas Gillespie, 248 acres corner John Clark, 1774

Samuel Glass, 275 acres in Sink Holes of Greenbrier, joining John Madison, John Wright, William Tencher, James Smith and James McAfee and John Parsons, 1774

James Graham, 173 acres (plat states 175) on Greenbrier, 1774

Thomas Graton, 350 acres between Great Savannah and Greenbrier, 1776

John Grey, 100 acres Sink Holes of Greenbrier, adjoining Joseph Daugherty, John Madison and John Clendening, 1774

John Griffith, 680 acres Mill Creek of Greenbrier, including survey for Malear Hanger 1751, date of this survey, 1774

James Guinn, 270 acres on Greenbrier, 1774

Moses Hall, 290 acres Woolf Creek, corner Evans, 1774

William Ham, 90 acres on Second Creek, corner Samuel West, 1774

Thomas Hambleton, 441 acres corner John Stewart, 1774

Andrew Hamilton, 415 acres Beaver Lick Creek, 1776

Philip Hammon, 170 acres between Greenbrier and Second Creek, joining Samuel Williams's survey, 1775

James Hannah, 81 acres on south side of Greenbrier, 1774

John Hardy (Handy?), 100 acres east side Muddy Creek Mountain, 1775

James Harlin, 72 acres Muddy Creek, 1774

Shaderick Harreman, 215 acres on Anthonys Creek, joining James Richards, 1774

Henry Hedry, 150 acres Mill Run of Greenbrier 1774

Abraham Hempenstall, 185 acres on Greenbrier, joining upper end of survey of "Spars Foard", 1774

Charles Howard, 115 acres Sinking Creek, branch of Greenbrier joining John Patton and Alexander Ochaltree, 1774

William Hughart, 95 acres Sinking Creek, joining Charles Lewis, William Man, 1774

John Humphrys, 295 acres Second Creek, joining Isaac Nickols, Andrew Ralston, and Elizabeth Allison, 1774

Richard Humphrys, 330 acres Mill Creek branch of Muddy Creek, joining Joseph Claypole, 1775

Samuel Humphry, 315 acres Anthonys Branch, including a survey made for William Grege 1751, this survey 1774

James Huston, 298 acres corner John Lewis, 1774

Samuel Iron, 85 acres North Fork Anthonys Creek, corner Samuel Canal, 1774

Francis Jackson, 100 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek, adjoining William Hambleton, 1774

William Jamison, 100 acres, 1774

David Jarrett, 270 acres Woolf Creek, 1774

James Jarrett, 216 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek, including old survey, adjoining Felty Yoakham, 1774

John Johnston, 160 acres joining the Thorny Thicket and a tract of Hugh Miller's, 1776

William Johnston, 330 acres including survey 257 acres made for Johnston, 1774, corner Michael Daughtery, this survey 1776

Henry Jones, 270 acres on Greenbrier, 1774

William Jones, 98 acres Sinking Creek, joining Charles Lewis, 1774

James Jordan, 285 acres between Sinking Creek and Mountain, including 75 acres surveyed for Jordan, 1769, this survey 1774

Martin Kayser, 142 acres Muddy Creek, 1774

John Keeny, 175 acres on Mudy [Muddy] Creek, including an old survey, corner Joseph Claypole, 1774

Alexander Kelly, 300 acres on Sinks of Greenbrier, adjoining James Arbuckel and Solomon Wright, 1774

Thomas Kenard, 40 acres Howards Creek, about a mile and half above mouth, 1774

Edward Kenison, 400 acres corner John Davis, 1774

✓ Evan Kilbreath, 170 acres east side Big Ridge, 1774

George and James Kincaide, 215 acres adjoining James Callison, _____ Brown, and _____ Gillaland, 1774

Mathias Kissinger, 100 acres 1774

James Knox, 220 acres Second Creek, including 150 acres surveyed for James Knox 1769, this survey, 1774

Benjamin Lewis, 379 acres on Greenbrier, 1774

Charles Lewis, 600 acres Sinking Creek including 490 acres surveyed 1769, this survey 1774

Charles Lewis, 544 acres Sinking Creek, including 50 acres surveyed 1769, corner Charles Donally, this survey 1774

Charles Lewis, 1050 acres Great Levels, on Great Glade joining the east side of lands of Archer Mathews, Robert McClanahan and George Davinson, 1774

George Lewis, 110 acres Sink of Rich Land Creek, 1774

John Lewis, 590 acres in Rich Hollow including place he lives on, corner John Brown and _____ Hughston, 1774

James Lockhart, 225 acres on Anthonys Creek, including place he lives on, formerly surveyed for Erwalker Johnston, 1774

Patrick Lockhart, 600 acres, 1774

James McAfee, 120 acres Sink Holes of Greenbrier, joining Samuel Glass and Joseph Miller, 1774

James McAfee, 530 acres Sink Holes of Greenbrier, joining Joseph Miller, 1774

John McCandles, 240 acres adjoining Crockett's, John Miller, and Robert Sconce, 1774

John McCauslen, 280 acres Foot of Alleghana [Alleghany] Mountain joining Thomas Spencer, 1774

Robert McClanahan, 775 acres corner John McClanahan, 1774

Joseph McClung, 300 acres head of Culbertsons creek, joining Charles Donally and Daniel Workman's surveys, 1774 (This survey does not mention Greenbrier River)

Samuel McClung, 406 acres Mudy [Muddy] Creek, adjoining William Hambleton, 1774

John McCoy, 300 acres Sinking Creek including survey of 105 acres for Thomas Williams, 1769, joining Charles Lewis Place, this survey, 1774.

Josias McDowell, 300 acres adjoining William McDowell, John Stewart and _____ Workman, 1774

William McDowell, 498 acres corner John Stewart, 1774

James McGinnes, 90 acres Little Levels, below John Poage's between Stamping Creek and branches of Stephens Hole, 1774

James McGuier, 100 acres fork of New River and Greenbrier, 1774

John McGuire, 190 acres Rich Land Creek, joining William Dyer, George Thornton, Andrew Lewis, and James Millian, 1775

John McNeace, 188 acres Spring Lick Creek, corner William McClanahan, 1774

John McNeal, 242 acres Little Levels, corner John Day, Nathaniel Day and John Poag, 1774

Thomas McNeil, 180 acres west side Greenbrier, and north side Buck Eye Mountain, 1774

William Magee, 167 acres on North Fork of Roanoke, under the Mountain, adjoining David Magee, 1767, assigned to Joshua McCormick, 1771, and he to William Grimes, 1772. Note states this survey was patented.

- John Swoob, 228 acres Woolf Creek, corner Michael Swoob, 1774
- Joseph Swoob, 200 acres Woolf Creek, 1774
- Michael Swoob, 167 acres Woolf Creek 1774
- William Tencher, 370 acres Sink Holes of Greenbrier, joining Jacob Massey, John Wright, Samuel Glass, James Smith, and Andrew Lewis, 1774
- James Thompson, 300 acres foot of Little Soaps Nob, joining William Ellum, 1774
- Robert Thompson, 400 acres Sinks of Greenbrier, including 330 acres surveyed for Edward McMullon, 1751, this survey, 1774
- George Thornton, 150 acres on Rich Land Creek, joining William Dyer, John McGuire, Andrew Lewis, 1775
- Solomon Turpin, 367 acres Second Creek, 1774
- Peter Vanbebber, 298 acres, 1774
- John Vantrice, 146 acres Spring Lick Creek, joining lower end of Valentine Vantrice's survey, 1774
- Thomas Vantrice, 33 acres Spring Lick Creek, $\frac{3}{4}$ mile above John Vantrice, 1774
- Valentine Vantrice, 175 acres Spring Lick Creek, joining upper end of John Vantrice's survey, 1774
- Samuel Vernon, 300 acres branch of Little Sinking Creek, joining Andrew Donally's survey, 1774
- John Viney, 350 acres waters of Muddy Creek, joining John Griffith and Daniel McDowell's survey, including 200 acres surveyed for John Viney, 1774, this survey, 1775
- Christopher Wahub and William Elliot, 390 acres west side Greenbrier joining James Morrow, John Gilkison, and James Gillilon, 1774
- James Ward, 80 acres Middle Fork Anthony's Creek, adjoining John Ward survey, 1774
- John Ward, Sr., 300 acres Middle Fork Anthony's Creek joining upper end James Ward's land, 1774
- William Ward, 179 acres west side Greenbrier, joining Charles Lewis's survey, 1775
- Samuel West, 215 acres Second Creek, 1774
- Solomon Wright, 160 acres Sinks of Greenbrier, joining James Parson and Robert Thompson, including survey for the Company 1751, this survey 1774
- John Wiley, 89 acres Woolf Creek, adjoining _____ Hall, 1774
- John Wiley, 244 acres Woolf Creek, 1774
- John Williams, 99 acres Spring Lick Creek above William Rennicks, 1774
- Joseph Williams, 75 acres, 1774
- Joseph Williams, 280 acres, Second Creek and including 105 acres surveyed for Williams 1769, corner James Knox and Richard Dixon, this survey 1774
- Samuel Williams, 89 acres between Greenbrier and Second Creek, head of Archers Licks Hollow, adjoining Philip Hamma (?), 1775
- Thomas Williams, 200 acres Sinking Creek, joining Charles Lewis's Mill Place, 1774
- Andrew Wilson, 260 acres Sink Holes east side Little Soaps Nob, 1774.
- John Wilson, 260 acres Sink Holes adjoining Jephthar Massey and William Wilson, 1774
- William Wilson, 315 acres north side Soaps Nob, joining John Wilson, 1774
- Daniel Workman, 220 acres adjoining John Stewart and _____ McDowell, 1774
- Daniel Workman, 300 acres head of Culbertson Creek joining Josiah McClung, and Charles Donally, 1774
- John Wrath, 140 acres head of Long Draught, 1774
- John Wright, 155 acres Sink Holes of Greenbrier, joining John Madison, Samuel Glass, and William Tencher, 1774
- John Wymore, 280 acres Spring Lick Creek, 1774

The Ohio Company

The second land company of importance—the Ohio Company— was projected in 1748 by Thomas Lee of Westmoreland County, who was a member of the Council and afterwards president of the Council, and acting governor of Virginia. The association was formed to make settlements west of the Alleghenies, and the grant was made by order of Council in March 1749. The land was to include 500,000 acres between the Monongahela and the Kanawha, though a part might go north of the Ohio. Two hundred thousand acres were to be taken immediately. The company was to pay no quitrents for ten years, but was to settle 100 families at once, to build a fort at its own expense, and to maintain a garrison in it for defence against the Indians.

In its more than forty-year existence, the Ohio Company personnel represented the best of Virginia families. The men mentioned in this connection are as follows: Colonel

EARLY ADVENTURERS
ON THE WESTERN WATERS

VOLUME I

Mary B. Kogley

F. B. Kogley