

Letty Jackson

Will

In the name of God Amen I Jeremiah Delany of Botetourt County being much advanced in Body though but in sound mind and in full exercise of my reason

For which I thank almighty God do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament in Manner and Form Following that is to say I commit my body to the earth & my soul to the mercy of my Lord I do sign with an humble hope of a

Happy Resurrection

In consideration of the kindness I have received from my friend James Gaddy and of the further consideration of his having paid some debts for me that I was unable to pay myself I do hereby freely Give & bequeath all my property both real and personal to the said James Gaddy to his heirs forever

And I do further appoint Wm Johnson my executor to this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others

In witness whereunto I have this day affixed my Hand and Seal this 5th day of January 1825

Witnessed

James Gaddy

Said James Landon to his heirs, executors and I as further appoint Wm Johnson my executor
to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all
others

In witness whereunto I have this day affixed my hand and seal this 5th day of January 1825

Witnessed
Thoson Lavender

Jeremiah Lundy (Page 2) with

Jno H Biggie

Botetourt County, Virginia Wills, 1824-1829 www.virginiapioneers.net

At Botetourt January Court 1825

This instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Jeremiah Lundy was exhibited in Court and proven by the oath of John H Biggie one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be read for the proof and at Botetourt Court 1825, was fully proven by the oath of Thoson Lavender an other subscribing witness and ordered to be recorded a copy true H W Borden D.C.