 David Still in the name of God Amen I David Still of the County of Bucks being the weak in body of sound mind & memory do hereby make this my last Will & Testament in manner herein following. I do hereby give & devise that my beloved wife Ursula Still possess & enjoy the tract of land in which she now dwells during her life, to her own proper use & enjoyment in every way most agreeable to herself - I do hereby give & bequeath all my personal estate of every kind, to the use & management of my wife aforesaid, for the benefit, support & instruction of my two daughters Mary Manlove Still & Emily Still & to be equally divided between them when the same shall be lawful and so remain, On the day of the death of either aforesaid, I do hereby give that the Survivor take the whole I do hereby constitute & appoint my wife Ursula my sole executrix to manage & direct with respect to all my estate, but it is my desire that she shall not be required to give any security. In the last place we have seen that after the death of my wife my land shall be sold & the money equally divided between my two daughters & the heirs of their last husbands. Signed by me with my hand this twelfth day of February in the year of our Lord's Christian hundred & 44
