William Walpole

Will

In the name of God amen William Walpole being sick and weak in body but yet of perfect sense and memory thanks to Almighty God for it, and as life is uncertain and death is certain do make constitute appoint and ordain this my last Will and Testament revoking all former Wills made by me that is my body I have to be buried after a formal manner and my soul be recommended into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, and as to my worldly Estate I do give and bequeath after the following manner to wit I have I do lend to my loving Wife Lucy Walpole all my Estate both real and personal (after raising all my Children untill they come of age and giving each and every of them a tolerable portion of Schooling) during her natural life or widowhood and at her death or marriage then it is my Will that if my son William is not of age that all the Negroes and other property at that time belonging to my Estate be kept together in my plantations and the profits thence arising or so much of the profits as is necessary, to be applied to the support of my children that is under age and to the schooling of them the residue of the profits after schooling and supporting of my children untill they come of age, to be let out to Interest untill my son William comes of age at which time or if my living wife should live longer than that time at her death or marriage after William comes of age then I leave all my Lands to be sold to the highest bidder and the Money equally divided between my three sons Thomas Harrison Walpole, John Paschal Walpole & William Ewel Walpole and if either of my sons die under age then the money to be equally divided between the two living ones, if two of my sons should die under age then I give all the money to the surviving one and at the same time I leave all my other property to be equally divided, except my desk that I gave to my son William Walpole, between Thomas Harrison Walpole, John Paschal Walpole, and William Ewel Walpole, Sally Walpole, Mary Walpole, & Jeremiah Harrison Walpole. I do bind such part of my estate to each and every of my Daughters as falls to them during their natural life. then I do give it to the lawful heirs of their body if any, if none to be success amongst her surviving sisters and such part as falls to my sons I do give to them, and their heirs forever. I do nominate and appoint Benjamin Lewis, John Organ James Edmunds and John Pe Executors of this my last Will and Testament given under my hand and seal this 27th day of June 1805. —
