According to the annexed Order of Court I have stated examined and settled the account of Caroline M Blanch with Robert Cook her Guardian. the debits were all supported by proper vouchers except the one for $3. on the 20th January 1838, but I considered that for Robert money was better reasonable and therefore allowed it. I find a balance due the Court from said Robert Cook on the 15th instant of seven hundred and four dollars and three cents with interest on $638.95 at a fair three per cent till paid, all of which is respectfully submitted to Court.

Lawrenceville Va 23 March 1839 Agreeably to the annexed Order of Court, I have examined stated and settled the Account of James P. Harrison Son of Matthew M. Harrison, see two last pages. I find a balance due the Ward 31 December 1838 of six hundred and forty one dollars and fifty cents. The debts marked were not supported by any Voucher, the Gen furnished them I signed himself. They however appeared to be necessary & proper for such an estate and accordingly allowed. The other debts were supported by proper Vouchers. —

It seems from an Account Current of Matthew M. Harrison decd, the father of this Gen's Ward that the decd estate was owing of the said James P. Harrison the admor on the 1st Oct 1837 the sum of Five thousand five hundred and twenty two dollars and twenty two cents. I have declined bringing the balance into this Account as the admor might wish to pay himself by selling property — and if brought into this settlement he would probably have to get an Order of Court to do so. All of which is respectfully submitted to Court.

Savannah N. 19 July 1839. Agreeably to the annexed order of Court, I have examined, settled & settled the accounts of Jas. M. Cook Guardian of Mary Walker as may be seen from page 1 to 6. inclusive - On the first page are joint accounts agt. the Wards N^os. 1, 2 & 3. The balances either debit or credit have been placed to the respective account of each Ward - Account N^o 1. Shows the sum of two dollars & forty one cents due from Elizabeth Walker dec^d to J^r. W. Cook - At page 2 and a part of 3 exhibits the acct. against Mary R. H. Walker & shows a balance due her in the hands of her Guardian J^r. W. Cook on the 1st July 1839 of Three hundred & Seventy Three dollars & four cents. With interest thereon till paid it will be seen that the Guardian did along in the years 1834 and in 1838 make advancements to her in various ways, but did not receive funds to reimburse himself till the end of each year - In consequence of which I have not charged him with interest on the balances of those years till 1st July in each year following, allowing him the use of the balances and time to disburse the same so.

At page 3 & 4. will be seen Lucy C. B. Walker's account with the Guardian and shows a balance due her on the 1st July 1839 of Seventeen hundred & Eighty dollars & Sixty Six cents with int^l till paid. - for the same reasons as given in Mary R. H. Walker's acct. heretofore, the Guardian is not debited with interest on the balances of each year till 6 months thereafter.

At page 5 & 6. will be seen Wm E. Walker's acct. with his Guardian, and shows a balance due him on the first day of July 1839 of Three thousand four hundred & two dollars, & Sixty & a half cents with interest thereon till paid. - And for the same reasons given in the report above against Mary R. H. Walker, I have not charged the Guardian with interest on the balances of 1837 & 1838 till 6 months thereafter. - I have debited each ward with commissions & 5^{cts} per cent on their part or amt. of expenses paid for keeping or putting out the best advantage the expensive negroes, it being as much, if not more trouble to put them out at good homes - than it would be to hire out men or healthy young women. - all of which is respectfully submitted to court.
