Teste, O. A. Forbes, ccc.

I, Albert N. Gilliam of the County of Buckingham, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Louisa Ann all my property real and personal and all my reversionary interest in my mother's estate & all other interests whatsoever - as long as she is my widow, and at her death I wish all the above property to be equally divided between my sisters sons Frank & Dyer Johnson except a negro girl Cornelia which is given to Virginia Gilliam Hudgens the daughter of James T. Hudgens.

I further desire that my wife execute this my last Will and testament and in doing the same she be held to no security as with my hand and seal this the fourth day of September in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty four.

The above was acknowledged before us } Albert N. Gilliam (S)
by A. N. Gilliam as being his act and deed }
