Given under my hand and seal this 13 day of February 1886

Jos M Brown

At a County Court held for Buckingham County July 11th 1887

This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Jos M Brown, dec^d was this day produced in Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, John C Tinner and James N Ayers were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the testator, and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribes, to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon the said Writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Jos M Brown, dec^d. And on the motion of Sarah Ann Brown, the executrix named in said Will, who made oath according to law, and entered into and acknowledges a bond in the penalty of $600 conditioned according to law without security, the testator by his will directing that none should be required, certificate is granted the said Sarah Ann Brown for obtaining a probat of the said Will in due form.

Teste, P. H. Jones, C. J. C.

Teste, P. A. Forbes, C. B. C.

I Lavinia B. Morley of the County of Birmingham and State of Virginia, being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath my landed and personal property to my two daughters, viz Mrs A. F. M. Luritto and Emma M. Morley, to be sold or granted as they shall deem best, and in doing this I have acted upon the counsel and with the advice of my dear son Arthur G. Morley, who has in the most disinterested manner relinquished his portion of the estate to his two sisters. Should my dear son be present at the time of my death I appoint him my Executor, but in case of his
