

In the name of God, Amen. I, Charles A. Perrow, of the County of Buckingham, and State of Virginia, being in sound and disposing mind and memory, calling to mind the frailty and uncertainty of human life, and being desirous of settling my worldly affairs, and directing how the estate with which I have pleased God to bless me shall be disposed of after my decease, while I have strength and capacity so to do, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking, and making null and void, all other last Wills, deeds, and testaments by me heretofore made. And first, I commend my immortal being to him who gave it, and my body to the earth, to be buried, by my Executors herein after named. And as to my worldly estate, and all the property real, and personal, or mixed, of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequeath, and dispose thereof in the manner following, to-wit: - My will is, that my doctor's bills, and funeral charges shall by my Executors herein after named, be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient.

I give, devise, and bequeath to my niece Mrs. Juliet M. Barnhart one third of my estate both real and personal. (My real estate consists of one hundred and seventy nine acres of land lying north and south of the road leading from New Canton to Dunn's Chapel, ninety nine acres lying on the south side of said road and eighty on the north side, all being in the County of Buckingham, and State of Virginia, and adjoining the lands of R. B. Nicholas' estate, Big Lining land and others on and near Hunt's Creek.)

I give, devise, and bequeath to my niece Mrs. Martha A. Abrahams one third of all my property, both real and personal.

I give, devise and bequeath the remaining third of my property to

Lastly, I do nominate and appoint J. M. Abrahams, E. J. Bumpas, and S. B. Lesure, to be the executors of this my last Will and Testament. In testimony whereof, I the said Charles A. Perow, have to this my last Will and Testament subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, this 1st day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy four.

Teste, P. A. Foster, C. R. C.

Examined I, Robert Moore, of Buckingham County, and State of Virginia, being in sound mind, and perfect health and memory, and considering it is ordained for all men to die, and having seen the great inconvenience of a man not devising his worldly goods and chattles, before he departs this life, do make, ordain, constitute and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made, in form following, to wit: that is to say, first I give unto Almighty God who gave it me my soul, and desire that my body may be decently interred in the dust from whence it came.

Secondly. I give and devise unto my daughter Adeline Davidson, and the heirs of her body all the personal estate and advancements made by me to her.
