

To whom it may concern
 I Dabney Harris, of the County of Buckingham State of Virginia being in feeble health but of sound and disposing mind, do make this my last will and testament, in the manner and form following: That is to say that I will and bequeath to my wife Frances Harris all of my personal property and real estate to hold and use for her benefit during her natural life. At her death I wish the same property to be equally divided among my children. And I hereby appoint and constitute James D. Harris my son my executor to pay all my just debts and to carry out all the provisions of this my last will and testament. In witness hereunto I set my hand and seal the 27th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety four (1894).
