

I, David A. Parrack of the County of Buckingham, in the State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and proclaim this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Testaments made by me.

And

1. It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid.

2. I give and devise to my sister, Mary E. Shaw, for and during her natural life, for her sole and separate use and benefit, all my real estate in the village of Mayville, and adjoining said village, bought by me of my father's estate, consisting of two lots of land, with the buildings and appurtenances thereto, belonging, one known as lot No 16, and the other adjoining the first, and containing one and one half acres more or less, and at the death of the said Mary E. Shaw I give and devise the said real estate to my two nieces, her daughters, Virginia Shaw and Judith Shaw, to be equally divided between them, or to the survivor, if one alone be living.

3. I give and bequeath to my said sister, Mary E. Shaw, for and during her natural life, for her sole and separate use and benefit, one City of Richmond eight per cent bond for Eight Hundred dollars, ($800.00), and one City of Richmond six per cent bond for Two Hundred dollars, and at the death of the said Mary E. Shaw, I give and bequeath the said bonds to my said two nieces, Virginia Shaw and Judith Shaw, or to the survivor, if one alone be living at the death of the said Mary E.

4. I give and bequeath to my sister Evaline Davidson, one City of Richmond eight per cent bond for One Hundred dollars, one City of Richmond five per cent bond for Five Hundred dollars, eight shares of the stock of the "Union Bank of Richmond", twenty-eight shares of the stock of the "Citizens Bank of Richmond", one share of the stock of the "Wilmington & Annapolis Rail Road Company", and village of Mayssville, and adjoining said village, bought by me of my father's estate, consisting of two lots of land, with the buildings and appurtenances thereto, belonging, one known as lot No 16, and the other adjoining the first, and containing one and one half acres more or less, and at the death of the said Mary E. Shaw I give and devise the said real estate to my two nieces, her daughters, Virginia Shaw and Judith Shaw, to be equally divided between them, or to the survivor, if one alone be living.

3. I give and bequeath to my said sister, Mary E. Shaw, for and during her natural life, for her sole and separate use and benefit, one City of Richmond eight per cent bond for Eight Hundred dollars, ($800.00), and one City of Richmond six per cent bond for Two Hundred dollars, and at the death of the said Mary E. Shaw, I give and bequeath the said bonds to my said two nieces, Virginia Shaw and Judith Shaw, or to the survivor, if one alone be living at the death of the said Mary E.

4. I give and bequeath to my sister Exaline Davidson, one City of Richmond eight per cent bond for One Hundred dollars, one City of Richmond six per cent bond for Five Hundred dollars, eight shares of the stock of the "Union Bank of Richmond", twenty-eight shares of the stock of the "Citizens Bank of Richmond", one share of the stock of the "Wilmington & Weldon Rail Road Company", and four shares of the stock of the "American Construction and Improvement Company", to her and her heirs forever.

5. I give and devise to my two sisters, Mary E. Shaw and Exaline Davidson, my tract of woodland lying in the county of Buckingham, on the New Canton Road, about two miles east of the Court House, and containing forty nine acres by survey, be the same, however, said land, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever.

6. I give and bequeath to my two sisters, Mary E. Shaw and Exaline Davidson, and Trust in Newark, two shares of the stock of the "Union Bank of Richmond," ten shares of the stock of the "Richmond and Petersburg Rail Road Company," twenty shares of the stock of the "Citizens Bank of Richmond," and twelve shares of the stock of the "Commercial Savings Bank at Henricville," to be equally divided between them, and to be expended, if it should be deemed just and proper to do so, in aiding to give them a liberal education.

7. I give and bequeath to my two grand-nieces, Fannie and Marion Forbes, daughters of my niece, John H. Forbes, eight City of Richmond six per cent bonds, for One Hundred dollars each, to be equally divided between them.

8. I give and bequeath to my grand-nephews, Alex. Herbert and Parrack Forbes, three City of Richmond six per cent bonds for One Hundred dollars each, to be equally divided between them.

9. I give and bequeath to my grand-nephew, Arthur Forbes, my gold watch and chain, and my small diamond pin.

10. I give to my niece, Florence M. Jennings, daughter of my deceased brother, Wm. A. Parrack one United States four per cent bond for Five Hundred dollars, and three United States four per cent bonds for One Hundred dollars each.

11. I give and bequeath to my sister Mary E. Shaw, in trust, to be held and expended for the use and benefit of Annie Irvine, daughter of my deceased niece, Mary A. Irvine, six Hundred dollars worth of the "Dividend Obligations" of the "Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad Co."

12. I give and bequeath to Catherine Daniel, colored, formerly Catherine Neighbors, for and during her life, four shares of the stock of the "Union Bank of Richmond," the dividends alone on which said stock are to be paid to the said Catherine, semi-annually as it accrues, as long as she lives, and at her death the said Catherine may by will, or writing in the nature of a will, give and bequeath said four shares of stock to my two nephews, Thomas D. and Ernest E. Parrack, and my two nieces Virginia & Judith Shaw, or to any one or more of them as she may see fit. In default of such disposition by the said Catherine the said stock is to be divided equally among the said Thomas D.

for and during her life, four shares of the stock of the Union Loan dividends alone on which said stock are to be paid to the said Catharine, semi-annually as it accrues, as long as she lives, and at her death the said Catharine may by will, or writing in the nature of a will, give and bequeath said four shares of stock to my two nephews, Thomas D. and Ernest E. Parrack, and my two nieces Virginia & Juliett Shaw, or to any one or more of them as she may see fit. In default of such disposition by the said Catharine, then the said stock is to be divided equally among the said Thomas D., Ernest Virginia, and Juliett, or, if any be dead, among or between the survivors as the case may be, or given to the survivor if one alone be living. If from any cause it should become necessary to change this investment during the life-time of the said Catharine, then the proceeds of the same are to be reinvested for her benefit, and the provisions of this bequest are to apply equally to said reinvestment, mutatis mutandis.

13. I give and bequeath my library to my two nephews, Thomas J. Davidson and Thomas R. Shaw, to be divided between them as they may see fit.
14. I desire that the money I may have on hand at my death, and, if necessary, the accruing interest and dividends on the bonds & stocks herein bequeathed, be appropriated to the payment of debts, burial expenses, and the expenses of settling up my estate.
15. I give & bequeath to my sister Eveline Davidson, all the rest, remainder & residue of my estate of every kind, character and description, whether real or personal, to her and her heirs forever.

I nominate and appoint my friends J. B. Gibson and Alexander S. Hall executors of this my last will and testament, and if not conflicting too much with their own private business and interests, earnestly desire that they will act as such.

I desire that no inventory or appraisement be made of my estate, as this is an obnoxious will, no subscribing witnesses, under the statute I believe necessary, and this will be more amply. My handwriting can be easily proved. Witness my hand this 13th day of June 1892.

David A. Marshall

At a County Court convened and held for Buckingham County June 13th 1892.
This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David A. Marshall was this day produced in Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses to the said Will, Banning Shaw and J. H. Wood were sworn and severally depose that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said David A. Marshall and they believe that the said Will and the signature thereto subscribed are wholly in the hand writing of the said David A. Marshall and therefore the same is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said David A. Marshall and
And on the motion of Alexander S. Hall and J. B. Gilliam, the executors named in said Will, who made oath thereto, and with Wm. Cabell by Banning Shaw his attorney in fact, P. A. Forbes, T. L. Rudiment and J. T. Oliver their assistants, the Court deeming them sufficient, they having been sworn to justify, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $10000.00 payable to the Commonwealth and conditioned according to law, certificate is granted the said Alexander S. Hall and J. B. Gilliam for obtaining a probate of the said Will in due form.
