

In the name of God, Amen. I, Delia Irving of Buckingham County, Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, but in feeble health, do make and ordain the following as my last Will and Testament. I constitute and appoint my son Charles R. Irving Executor of this my Will and direct him at my death to take charge of all the estate I may leave and hold and use the same for the joint benefit of my husband Robert K. Irving and my daughter Millie E. Irving as long as my husband lives, but the joint interest of the said Millie E. Irving to cease on her marriage or removal from his father. No part of the principal or income of my estate to be in any manner liable for the debts or liabilities of my said husband. On the death of my husband I desire all which may remain of my estate to be divided equally among my children or the descendants of such as may be dead. The descendants taking only the share of their parent. I request that my Executor give no security and make no inventory or appraisement, and wish my estate managed with the least expense and in peace and amity. Given under my hand and seal this 4th day of November 1881.

We have subscribed this Will in the presence of the testator, and of each other, and at her request.
