

I, Ellis W Putney of the County of Buckingham in the State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament as follows:

1. I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon as practicable.
2. I give and devise to my son Richard Putney three hundred acres of my home tract of land on which I reside, on the eastern side thereof including the dwelling and other houses.

3. I give and devise to my son Samuel B. Putney for and during his life one hundred acres of my said home tract of land to be cut off on the western side thereof, and at his death to the issue of his body then living, if any, if none then living, then I give said one hundred acres in fee to my said son Richard.

4. I give and bequeath to my daughter Virginia Alice four hundred dollars in money and a colt named "Marshall" to be paid to her when she attains the age of twenty one years, and I also give her a home in my mansion house with a comfortable support as long as she may remain unmarried.

5. I give and bequeath to each of my grandchildren bearing my name to wit Ellis Julian Putney, Fanny Ellis Putney, Ellis Dunkum and Ellis Jones twenty five dollars.

6. I give and bequeath to each of my other children, viz William, Ellis, Susan, Sarah and John five dollars.

7. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and balance of my estate both real and personal (not herein before disposed of, and not embraced in the next and 8th clause of this Will,) to my said son Richard, and I direct that he shall pay all my just debts and all several legacies, and for that purpose hereby give her a home in my mansion home with a comfortable support as long as she may remain unmarried

5 I give and bequeath to each of my grandchildren bearing my name to wit. Ellis Julian Putney, Fanny Ellis Putney, Ellis Dunkum and Ellis Jones twenty five dollars

6 I give and bequeath to each of my other children, viz. William, Ellis, Susan, Sarah and John five dollars

7 I give, devise and bequeath all the rest and balance of my estate both real and personal (not herein before disposed of, and not embraced in the next and 8th clause of this Will,) to my dear son Richard, and I direct that he shall pay all my just debts and all of the said several legacies, and for that purpose hereby charge all the property given him the said Richard by this Will with the payment of said debts and legacies

8 It is my Will, devise and intention that the minerals if any beneath the surface of my said home tract shall not be included in the aforesaid devise, but that any and all minerals if any in said land shall belong to and be equally divided among and between all my children and the descendants of any that may be dead, such descendants to take per stirps

9 It is my Will and intention that the property herein before given for life to my son Samuel D. shall be in full satisfaction for all his services rendered for me

10 I constitute and appoint my son Richard Putney executor of this my last Will and Testament and desire that he may qualify withing being required to give security Within my house and seal this the 24th March 1880

Ellis W. Putney

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, September 10th 1890
 This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Robert Putney, dec^d was this day produced in Court, and proved by the oath of W. H. Taylor and Samuel T. Putney, subscribing witnesses, and ordered to be received and on the motion of Richard Putney, the executor named in said Will, who made oath thereto, and enters into and acknowledges a bond in the penalty of $1000 conditions according to law, without security, the testator by his Will directing that none should be required, certificate is granted the said Saml. T. Putney for obtaining a probat of the said Will in due form.
 Teste P. A. Foster C. C. C.

I, Jane D. Molloy of the County of Buckingham and State of Virginia, hereby revoking all other and former wills heretofore made by me, ordain this writing to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say-

Item 1st I direct that all my just debts shall be paid.

Item 2^d I give to my daughter Mary C. Gannaway, the wife of Richard W. Gannaway my tract of land called Red-Oaks containing eight hundred acres, lying in the said County of Buckingham together with all the personal property that may be on the same at the time of my death, for the sole and separate use of my said daughter, free from the control, debt, or contracts of her husband the said Richard W. Gannaway. And the said Mary C. Gannaway shall have the power to dispose of the said tract of land and property in her lifetime, by deed or other writing, as she may think proper, or by last Will and Testament as she may direct and appoint.