At a Court held for Buckingham County July 12, 1869. This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Meador dec'd, was this day produced in Court by the executor therein named, in order to be proved: and thereupon Thomas Meador appeared and opposed the proof of said writing, and the motion is continued until next Court. And at another day to wit: At a Court continued and held for said County, Aug^t 10th 1869, the said paper writing was again produced in Court in order to be proved, and the evidence being partly heard, the motion is continued until tomorrow. And at another, to wit: At a Court continued and held for said County Aug^t 11, 1869, the testimony and arguments of counsel being fully heard, it is the opinion of the Court that the said paper writing is the true last Will and Testament of James Meador dec'd, and it is ordered that said Will be recorded: And at another day to wit: At a Court held for said County, September 13, 1869. On the motion of said S. D. Holman, one of the Executors named in said Will, who made oath thereto, and with Peter Sipo, his security, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $1000.00 conditions according to law, security being sworn to justify, certificate is granted the said Said S. D. Holman for obtaining a probate of said Will in due form. And it being declared that the estate of the said decedent does not exceed one thousand dollars, no revenue stamp is required. J. M. Pratt C. B. C.
