

I, John Allen, of the County of Buckingham, State of Virginia, being of sound mind and well disposed thereto, do hereby make this my last Will and Testament:

To my nieces and nephews, herein named as follows: Willie Allen Hill (wife of Lucius H. Hill), James Woods Allen, George Hunt Allen, Olivia Levent Allen, Eudora Lee Chambers (wife of Walter A. Chambers Junior) and Lillie Haran Allen. I hereby give and bequeath my whole estate, both real and personal, to be equally divided between the same, in such manner as they may all agree to divide, and have and use the same in fee simple except in one instance namely: that in the case of the said Willie Allen Hill (wife of Lucius H. Hill aforesaid) the real estate above mentioned or her portion thereof shall be and is hereby so entailed or devised as to go and be equally divided between her children present and prospective, at her death. But nothing in this clause shall be so construed as to prohibit a sale of said land provided it can be shown to a competent Court that that it is for the best interests of said legatee and her heirs to sell the same, and the money proceeding from such sale be reinvested according to such decree as said Court shall make in the premises.

And I hereby will and bequeath to my cousin Lillie Allen Wrenn, the sum of five dollars for each of my six legatees to be well and duly paid to her by each of the aforesaid legatees, every year for her support, until the whole sum so paid shall aggregate the amount of One hundred and fifty dollars, or until her death, and should she die before whole of one hundred and fifty dollars are paid, the payment of five dollars yearly from each legatee (Twenty dollars annually) shall cease.

As witness my hand and seal this the thirty first day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine.
