

Know all Men by these Presents that I John I. Gilliam of the County of Buckingham and State of Virginia being in bad health though of dispoable mind doth make and publish this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other heretofore made by me, And in consideration of what I have done and given to my own children the balance I may be in possession of after my debts and funeral expences are paid I give as a special legacy to my grand child John I. Gilliam the son of Edward I. Gilliam and Ada his wife and when of suitable age be given a good education and when of legal age be put in possession of the balance And to effectuate this my desire I appoint Edward I. Gilliam his father and Robert H. Gilliam his uncle trustees And pray God in his wisdom he may so influence their management as to prove a blessing to the dear child; I leave it optionary with the Trustees to make any change by sale or purchase whilst he is a minor that they may judge to his interest in witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the 27th December Eighteen hundred and eighty two

Witness
Jesse I. Lewis
Jas M. Carson

John I. Gilliam

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, March 9th 1885 This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John I. Gilliam dec^d was this day produced in Court, and thereupon John B. Gilliam was sworn who testified that he is well acquainted with the testator's handwriting and verily

William and Ada his wife and when of suitable age be given a good education and when of legal age be put in possession of the balance And to effectuate this my desire I appoint Edward J. Gilliam his father and Robert H. Gilliam his uncle trustees And pray God in his wisdom he may so influence their management as to prove a blessing to the dear child, I leave it optional with the Trustees to make any change by sale or purchase whilst he is a minor that they may judge to his interest in witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the 27th December Eighteen hundred and eighty two

Witness

John I. Lewis

Jan M. Carson

John J. Gilliam

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, March 9th 1883 This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John J. Gilliam, dec^d was this day produced in Court, and thereupon John B. Gilliam was sworn who testified that he is well acquainted with the testator's handwriting, and verily believes the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said John J. Gilliam, dec^d

Teste J. A. Foster C. B. C.