

summon of Elizabeth Moore the executrix named in the codicil to the said Will who made oath as the law directs, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $120,000. Conditions according to law, but without security, the Will directing that none should be required of her, certificate is granted the said Elizabeth Moore for obtaining a probat of the said Will ^{and codicil} in due form.

Test. P. A. Forbes C.B.C.

I Joseph Fuqua now resident at "Bear Garden" in the County of Buckingham State of Virginia having arrived at an advanced age and being of sound and disposing mind and memory do on this the 16th day of September 1876, make my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all former Wills made by me at any time prior to this date. I hereby appoint my son William Fuqua of the County of Cumberland and my son in law John R. Wilson of the Town of Farmville joint Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I request and desire that they may be allowed to qualify as such without being required to give security.

Having given to my sons George, William and Joseph, and to my daughter Cornelia the wife of John R. Wilson such portions of my estate as I could afford I hereby bequeath to them my love and affection.

After the payment of all my just debts I give and bequeath all the real and personal estate of which I may be seized and possessor at the time of my death together with all my household and kitchen furniture and all debts which may be due to me to be equally divided between my son Samuel and my daughter Virginia.

And thus dispose of all my earthly estate I hereunto set my

Ex^o & del^o
Wm. W. W. W.

hand and seal this the 16th day September 1876

Joseph Fuqua

Witnesses by us in the presence of the testator and of each other

James B. Ficklen

Jos. M. Norvell

September 19th 1876

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, February 12th 1877. This paper, availing itself to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph Fuqua, dec'd, was this day produced in Court and proved by the oaths of James B. Ficklen and John M. Norvell, the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of William Fuqua, one of the executors named in said Will, who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $500 conditioned according to law, without security, the testator by his Will directing that none should be required, certificate is granted the said William Fuqua for obtaining a probat of the said Will in due form.

Teste, P. A. Forbes, C. B. C.

In the name of God, Amen I Charles Cottrell of Buckingham County being sound in mind and memory thanks be to God do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. First I give to my wife Ellinen Cottrell two feet or beds and furniture two Tables Desk Chest and skillet to her and her heirs forever all the rest of my estate — I leave to my wife during her life or widowhood my will is that all and every one of my negroes be freed at the death of my wife I leave to my wife to be equally divided between the whole