

Buckingham County, Va

March 21st 1890.

I, Maria J. Duvant of the County of Buckingham State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory and aware of the shortness of life and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all others, if any, heretofore made by me - To wit -

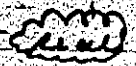

Item 1st I wish and direct that twelve acres of my land, lying N. E. of my residence and adjoining the land of W^m Cabel Col^d be sold to pay my debts.

Item 2 I bequeath to my daughter Mary J. Yancy, during her life and at her death to her children one half of my land, after deducting the said twelve acres.

Item 3. I bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth C. Meador the balance of my land with dwelling being about ninety two acres after deducting the said twelve acres and the half bequeathed to my said daughter Mary J. Yancy with this arrangement - The said Elizabeth C. Meador agreeing that Iremson Scroggs and his wife Eliza to have the use of five acres of the said Elizabeth's part during their natural lives.

Item 4. I bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth C. Meador all the rest and residue of my estate consisting of whatsoever it may.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 21 day March 1890.

At a County Court held for Buckingham County November 14th 1892. The foregoing writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Sallie H. Coleman died was this day produced in Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Martha J. Shepard and Welly Coleman were sworn, who testified that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the testatrix, and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the own hand of the testatrix. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said Sallie H. Coleman died.
