

I Martha Davidson being of sound mind and memory do give, devise and bequeath all my property both real and personal, to my children, hereby revoking all former wills by me made. In witness I Martha Davidson have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name this the 26th day of February 1897, at my home in Buckingham Co. Va. It is my will that all my landed estate be equally divided between George Thomas Davidson and Mrs. Lucy J. Carter. As long as George Thomas Davidson remains single he is to have a home at my home. If he marries, it is to be in possession and held by Mrs. Lucy J. Carter. George Thomas Davidson is to have my bed and board. If at any cow or yearling at my death George Thomas Davidson is to have them. If there should be any Dr. bill, it is my desire they be settled by George Thomas Davidson and Mrs. Lucy J. Carter, if they should be able. The interest I have in the horse now on my place at my death is to go to Mrs. Lucy J. Carter.
