I, Martha Jones, of the County of Buckingham, being of sound and disposing mind, do make this my last Will and Testament hereby re-vo-king all others by me at any time heretofore made.

First. My Will and desire all my just debts funeral expenses and charges of Administration be paid.

Second. I direct that my slaves Calhoun, Morton, Lizzie and her children now born, or hereafter to be born, Mary, Sophia daughter of Mary, Susan daughter of Mary, Willie son of Susan, Paulus, Henry, Dashford, and Jack be emancipated and set free, the said Paulus, Henry and Dashford being now in the possession of and claimed by Charles L. Christian my will in relation to them is to depend upon my title to them; and I further direct that my Executors pay to the said slaves upon their emancipation the following sums of money out of my estate to do with as they please viz: to Calhoun one thousand dollars, to Morton five hundred dollars, to Lizzie for her and her children five hundred dollars, to Paulus, Henry, Dashford, Mary, Susan, Willie, Sophia and Jack one hundred dollars each, the said sum of money given to Lizzie for the benefit of her and her children, to be paid to the said Lizzie without her giving security in the same manner as the sums given to the other slaves are to be paid to them, and she to be at liberty to use the same as she may choose for the purposes aforesaid.

Third. I give and bequeath to Wm R. Word son of Wm H. Word my boy Tom (son of Minerva) in fee simple.

Fourth. I give and bequeath to Quin M. Word in trust for the separate use of Susanna Burtons wife of Corseca Co. Burtons my boy John (son of Eliza) in absolute property.

Fifth. I give and bequeath to the eldest daughter of Quin
