I Mary E. Ague of the County of Buckingham do make this my last Will and Testament.

Art 1st. To my son John Lewis Woodson I give and bequeath as trustee for his children one third of the tract on which I reside containing three hundred and thirty acres (338[±]), and bounded by the lands of Oliver Bransford, Philip Howell, Mary Robertson, Robt B. Ague and others. The said portion of one hundred and twelve acres and $\frac{2}{3}$ of an acre (112 $\frac{2}{3}$ [±]) is to be cut off on the west side of the plantation and the lines so run as to leave ten acres of woods land on the west side of the public road to Buckingham Let House to the remainder of the tract. If my son J. L. Woodson should deem it best for the interests of his children to sell the land and invest it again, he is hereby empowered to do so. Of the personal property he has already issued his share.

Art 2^d I give and bequeath to my other two sons Robert Moreley and Thomas Meredith Agew the remainder of my estate both real and personal to be equally divided between them to have and to hold to them and their heirs forever. In the division of the personal estate to make it equal Robert Moreley Agew will have to account for a bay mare and cow valued at ninety five dollars.

And lastly I hereby appoint Robert Moreley and Thomas Meredith Agew as Executors of this my last Will and Testament revoking all others as witness my hand and seal this the 15th of June 1880 Signed sealed published and declared
