

Examined.

In the name of God Amen I R. B. Hudgins, of the County of Buckingham and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory (Charged by Almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last will and testament.

I give and bequeath to my two youngest daughters, Mary and Sallie each, three hundred dollars to finish, or complete their education but if they shall have completed their education at my decease, then the said Mary & Sallie shall not receive the aforesaid three hundred dollars each but share equally with the rest of my children I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Sallie all the rest of my personal property after paying the above named one hundred dollars & all debts due by me at my decease. I also give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Sallie, all the rest and residue of my real estate as long as she shall remain unmarried & my widow: but on her decease or marriage, the remainder thereof I give & bequeath to my children & their heirs respectively to be divided in equal shares between them.

I do nominate and appoint My beloved wife Sallie to be the sole executrix of this my last will & testament.

R. B. Hudgins.

At a County Court held for Buckingham County October 8th 1900. A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of R. B. Hudgins, deceased, was this day produced in Court and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto W. H. White and E. B. Davidson were sworn and testified that they are well acquainted with the Testators handwriting and evenly believe the said writing and the names thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the Testators own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said R. B. Hudgins, deceased. And on the motion of Sallie S. Hudgins, the executrix named in said Will, who made oath thereto, and with J. I. Oliver and E. B. Davidson, her sureties, (the Court deeming them sufficient, they having been sworn to justify) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $3000⁰⁰, payable to the Commonwealth and conditioned according to law certificate is granted the said Sallie S. Hudgins.

at my decease, then the said Mary & Sallie shall not receive the aforesaid three dollar each but share equally with the rest of my children I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sallie all the rest of my personal property after paying the above named one hundred dollars & all debts due by me at my decease.
