I, Robert Moore, of Buckingham County, and State of Virginia, being in sound mind, and perfect health and memory, and considering it is ordained for all men to die, and having seen the great inconvenience of a man not devising his worldly goods and chattles, before he departs this life, do make, ordain, constitute and publish this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made, in form following to wit: that is to say First I give unto Almighty God who gave it me my soul, and desire that my body may be decently interred in the dust from whence it came.

Secondly. I give and devise unto my daughter Adeline Dandridge, and the heirs of her body all the personal estate and advancements made her all of which she has hitherto received and no more of the remaining part of my estate, that portion being fully equal to what I was able to give my other daughters.

Thirdly. I give and devise unto my beloved wife Martha Moore my plantation upon which I now live containing three hundred and thirty acres of land with all the improvements thereunto attached, which said tract of land was given me by my father Benjamin Moore dec^d with the use of my grist and saw mill and the privilege of getting and using timber for her own use from any lands which I now own in the vicinity of the same. I also give and bequeath unto her during her natural life the one third part of all my personal estate of every description whatever.

Fourthly. I give and bequeath unto each of my daughters namely Sarah, Ann Jones, Martha Jane Allen, and Christina Francis Legon and the heirs of their bodies all the advancements hitherto made them which they are in the possession of, and at the death of them another Martha Moore as in my Will and desire that the personal estate which she may get from my estate may be equally divided between the three daughters above named.

Fifthly. I give and devise unto Fifthly. I give and devise unto my son Robert Allen Moore the plantation upon which he now lives containing five hundred and sixty acres of land being the same formerly belonging to the estate of Robert Moore, dec^d and which I purchased of his three sons namely William J. Moore, Abner Moore and John Moore. I also give and devise to him the said Robert Allen Moore the following named lands

I have and do hereby give and devise unto my son Thomas Phillips Lafayette Moore, the tract of land I purchased of Stegar formerly owned by John Bagby, with all the land and area on the north side of Meigs River, as also the one fourth part of all my personal estate which may be remaining after allotting to my wife that portion devised her.

Secondly, I give, devise and bequeath unto my three sons namely James M. Moore, Andrew Jackson Moore and Marcus Aurelius Moore all the remainder of my lands undivided as well as the tract left their mother at her death, as also the entire remainder of my personal estate undivided to be equally divided between them.

Eighth and last Item I constitute and appoint my beloved wife with my two sons Robert A. Moore and Thomas P. L. Moore my Executors and Agents to carry this my last Will and Testament into Execution, and it is my wish and desire that they shall not be compelled to give security for the performance of their duty in carrying the same into effect.

Given under my hand and seal this the tenth day of April Eighteen hundred and forty eight.

I, Robert Moore, of Buckingham County do this the thirtieth day of June eighteen hundred and fifty seven make and publish this codicil to my last Will and Testament in manner following (that is to say) I give unto my son Robert A Moore the tract of land upon which he now lives, and have been living upon for the last ten or twelve years, containing six hundred acres more or less, and formerly owned by Charles Patton and sold under a decree of the High Court of Chancery some years since when Benjamin Moore Senr as the Adm of Robert Moore, dec^d became the purchaser for said Robert Moore's estate from the legatee of whom I purchased the same, as will more fully appear from their deeds to me, recorded in Buckingham County Court. I give and bequeath unto my son Andrew Jackson Moore the tract of land I purchased of Captain Benjamin Hobson lying and being in the County of Perkhams and containing seven hundred acres more or less, bounded by Appomattox River, Thomas French, William Gordon, Mrs Stratten and John A Allen to the beginning upon Appomattox River. I give and bequeath unto my sons Samuel A Moore and Marcus Aurelius Moore the tract of land upon which I now live with the several tracts immediately adjoining the same to be equally divided between them, as to quantity and quality with a reservation that the homestead portion shall be allotted to Marcus and that my beloved wife Martha Moore shall have and enjoy an annuity with them during her lifetime during her natural life. I give and bequeath unto my son Patrick B Carter the same as above mentioned.

of my other children have received from me and my estate of every description be equally divided among my children after allowing to each one that has not his and remains in his own hands, and a house or the value thereof. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the first day of September 1858.
