

In the Name of God Amen. I Sarah Ann Driscoll of the County of Buckingham and State of Virginia being of sound mind and good health and desiring while in that condition to provide for the future and being possessed of 500 Acre of land in the County of Buckingham a part of "Elk Grove" and being possessed of considerable personal and perishable property in the County of Buckingham now on said land and having the right to dispose of all of said property by last will as if I the said Sarah Ann Driscoll were unmarried do make this my last will and Testament as follows.

I give and bequeath to each of my children one eighth of my land and one eighth of all the personal property which may exist at my death the steam engine fixtures and all appurtenances to be regarded as personal estate and to be so treated in the division. In making the division of my land the shares of my children Rosa Nora Driscoll & Ellery Lyon Driscoll shall be laid off together and shall embrace the mansion house and improvements connected and used therewith and said two shares shall be so laid off as to make a compact and convenient house with necessary water wood and outlets and in laying off said shares the improvements thereon are not to be estimated values or considered my object being to give to my said two children said improvements in addition to an equal share of the land. All my personal and perishable estate shall be equally divided. If my daughter Rosa Nora should die before her brother Ellery Lyon Driscoll without issue then her share of this my estate shall pass & belong to him. If my son Ellery Lyon Driscoll die before my daughter Rosa Nora Driscoll then his share of this my estate shall pass and belong to her. As long as my husband Thomas D. Driscoll lives he is to have a home at the mansion house and a reasonable support. If any of my children should die before me leaving issue the share of the
