

Last Will and Testament of Sarah D. Booker.

I Sarah D. Booker of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

1st I give and bequeath unto my husband George Booker as trustee in trust for the sole and separate benefit of my daughter Mary L. Booker not to be in any manner liable for the debts of my said trustee whether heretofore or hereafter contracted the following property namely: the three mares for which I hold a Bill of sale purchased by me with my own separate estate from Mr. Ferrell which said separate was derived by me from the estate of my first husband.

Also I give to my said trustee, upon the same terms and conditions for the sole and separate benefit of my daughter Mary L. Booker all the money which I may have on deposit in the Buckingham Savings Bank at Buckingham O. H. or in cash at my residence or at any other place either in the State of Virginia or Kentucky or elsewhere - this clause to give to my said daughter a balance due on the land sold in the State of Kentucky purchased by — Couch and derived from the estate of my first husband.

Also all debts due to me individually and all claims of every description I give to my said trustee my husband George Booker, to be held by him for the benefit of my said daughter Mary L. Booker upon the terms and conditions herein before described.

2^d I give and bequeath unto my said trustee George Booker my husband for the sole and separate benefit of my daughter Mary L. Booker upon the terms and conditions set forth in the first clause of my Will, my piano carriage sewing machine, and any and all other personal property including watch, household furniture, such as mahogany bureau, two beds and fixtures, and the part of the library which is my separate property - also two cows and

and the other a half James and then two color

3^d I give and bequeath to my true and lawful George Booker and Samuel Booker equally share and share alike all the real estate which I may own in the State of Florida and at any other place or places outside of the State of Virginia

4th I appoint my husband George Booker my Executor and desire that he may be allowed to qualify without giving any security

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal this the twenty first day of April 1879.

Signer seals published and declared by the testatrix Sarah D. Booker as and for her last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in her presence at her request and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses

Sarah D. Booker

S. E. Austin

Samuel Patterson

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, July 14th 1879. This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah D. Booker, dec^d was this day produced in Court, and proved by the oath of Samuel Patterson, a subscribing witness thereto, and at another day, to wit: At a County Court held for said County, August 11th 1879. This paper writing was again produced in Court, and further proved by the oath of S. E. Austin the other subscribing witness thereto, and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of George Booker or the Executor named in said Will who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledges a bond in the penalty of $200. conditioned according to law, that he may be allowed to qualify without giving any security.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal this the twenty first day of April 1879.

Signed sealed published and declared by the testatrix Sarah D. Booker as and for her last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in her presence at her request and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses.

Sarah D. Booker

S. E. Austin
Camm Patterson

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, July 14th 1879. This paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah D. Booker, dec^d was this day produced in Court, and proved by the oath of Camm Patterson, a subscribing witness thereto, and at another day, to wit: At a County Court held for said County, August 11th 1879. This paper writing was again produced in Court, and further proved by the oath of S. E. Austin the other subscribing witness thereto, and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of George Booker, Sr. the Executor named in said Will who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledges a bond in the penalty of $200. conditioned according to law, without security, the testatrix by her Will directing that none should be required, certificate is granted the said Executor for obtaining a probat of the said Will in due form.

Teste, P. H. Forbes C. D. C.

Estate of J. M. Epper