

the day produced in Court, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Martha J. Shepard and Welly Coleman were sworn, who testify that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the testatrix, and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the own hand of the testatrix: Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be received as the true last will and Testament of the said Sallie H. Coleman dec'd.

Teste: P. A. Forbes C. B. C.

I, Sarah E. Gillispie being of sound mind, do make this my last will and Testament First: I wish all my just debts to be paid Second: I wish my sister Jennie V. Smith well paid for the trouble and expense she has had on my account Third: I give to my brother James R. Gillispie my white cow & spone, my chest and a silver spoon that was my mothers Fourth: I give to Charlie G. Bingham my nephew my calf Fifth: I give to Charles and Walton Bingham and to Annie and Lelia Gillispie each one fourth of the money that may be left after paying my just debts Sixth: I give to my nephews Charles and Walton Bingham my tract of land Seventh: I give all the property in my house to my sister Jennie V. Smith Eighth: I hereby appoint my nephew Charles G. Bingham as my executor, and I request the Court not to require any bond or security of him I wish my nephew Charles G. Bingham to pay into my estate the note for $65.00 for money lent him, but I do not want him to pay any interest. I wish my buggy to be sold and the money divided between Chas and Walton and Annie & Lelia. Witness my hand this the 10th day of October in the year 1892

S. E. Gillispie

Witness by us who have signed in the presence of Miss S. E. Gillispie and of each other, and we have signed as witnesses to the above will at his request.

W. M. Jones

P. M. Jones

At a County Court held for Buckingham County, Decr 12th 1892. This paper writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of Sarah E. Gillespie decd. was this day produced in Court, & proved by the oath of W. M. Jones one of the subscribing witnesses thereto; And at another day to wit: At a County Court held for said County, January 9th 1893, said paper writing was again produced in Court & proved by the oath of P. M. Jones the other subscribing witness thereto, & ordered to be recorded: And on the motion of Charles G. Brougham, the executor named in said will, who made oath thereto, and entered into and acknowledged a bond without security (the testator by her will directing that none should be required), in the penalty of Five Hundred Dollars, payable to the Commonwealth and conditioned according to law, Certificate is granted the said Charles G. Brougham for obtaining a probat of the said will in due form.

Teste: P. A. Forbes C. B. C.

Buckingham County and State of Virginia February 4th 1893
I, John H. Bradley of said County & State being of sound mind and disposing memory, and feeling assured of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make and publish this my last Will & Testament hereby revoking all others (if any) made by me. After the payment of all debts for funeral expenses &c. I bequeath to my Grand Daughter Etta W. Camden the place I now reside containing one hundred acres, more or