At a County Court held for Buckingham County July 10th 1882. This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of S. E. Austin dec^d was this day presented to the Court and there being no subscribing witnesses to the said Will. Rolt B. Shaw and Charles R. Irving were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the handwriting of the said S. E. Austin dec^d and truly believe that the said Will and the signature thereto and subscrip^r are wholly in the handwriting of the said S. E. Austin dec^d where upon the same is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said J. E. Norton, dec'd.

Teste P. H. Fisher C. B. C.

In the name of God, Amen. I, Delia Irving of Buckingham County, Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, but in feeble health, do make and ordain the following as my last Will and Testament. I constitute and appoint my son Charles R. Irving executor of this my Will and direct him at my death to take charge of all the estate I may leave and hold and use the same for the joint benefit of my husband Robert K. Irving and my daughter Millie E. Irving as long as my husband lives, but the joint interest of the said Millie E. Irving to cease on her marriage or removal from her father. No part of the principal or income of my estate to be in any manner liable for the debts or liabilities of my said husband. On the death of my husband, I desire all which may remain of my estate to be divided equally among my children or the descendants of such as may be dead. The descend-
