do keep and with, do hereby make and declare this as my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say -

First. I desire that all my just debts shall be paid out of any money that I may have on hand.

Secondly. I give and bequeath unto my sister Mary B. Crank, formerly Mary B. Fries, all my City of Richmond registers bonds amounting to all of my State stock amounting to five thousand dollars, the Bank of Va. amounting to fifteen hundred dollars, five shares of stock in the Farmers Bank of Virginia amounting to two hundred dollars - fifteen shares of stock in the Bank of the Commonwealth amounting to fifteen hundred dollars, and two due bills of Messrs Christian and Lathrop of the City of Richmond - one for two thousand dollars, dated Sept 5th 1861, and payable on demand, and the other for five hundred dollars, dated the 22^d of May 1861, and also payable on demand, the last subject to the credit of a due bill of mine to the said Christian and Lathrop for about four hundred dollars.

Thirdly. I give and bequeath unto my two brothers William B. Stamp and Robert B. Stamp, and my three sisters Judith A. Stamp, Mrs E. E. Tyson formerly Emily B. Stamp and Jane C. Pittman formerly Jane P. Stamp, every thing else of which I may die seized and possessed or to which at the time of my death I may be in any way whatever entitled - whether consisting of money, stocks, Bonds, or any thing else whatsoever to be equally divided between them. In the case of my sister Judith A. Stamp, to whom I have given in the foregoing clause, one fifth part of every thing to which I may at the time of my death, after the payments of all my just debts and the payment of the specific legacy to my sister Mrs. Mary B. Crank as herein before provided be intells. I bequeath her the said Judith A. Traup the foregoing interest in my estate on the further condition that she will plunge herself to abandon the occupation of school teaching and the practice of wandering about the country, and settle herself in some private genteel family and pay her board and all other necessary expenses for which she has funds amply sufficient. In the event my sister Judith A. Traup declines to accept the above legacy, on the conditions prescribed, then and in that event I give that portion to Mary B. Crank. Among the evidences of debt that I hold, there is a certificate of the Savings Institute of Richmond for two thousand dollars, dated May the 1st 1861, and executed to me as agent for Judith A. Traup. This was done by me to protect the said Judith A. Traup against any loss in the funds in my hands belonging to her. Every thing due ^{by} me to the said Judith A. Traup having been fully liquidated, she consequently has no interest whatever in the said certificate. Believing that all the investments made by myself are good investments, I desire that their character shall not be changed by sale, but that they shall be divided as they now stand, between my brother and sister as herein before provided. With respect to two bonds of Phillips, Traup & Co. and two bonds of Christian and Lathrop which I hold, inasmuch as these bonds are for money borrowed and borrowed at a time when Confederate notes were equal to Bank notes, I desire that they shall not be collected except in notes of Southern Banks.
