

I William A. Dunn of Buckingham County, Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind, but of weak and failing health do make and ordain this as my last Will and Testament, viz:

Item 1. It is my will and desire that my body be buried in a plain and decent manner, and in every respect so as to indicate my firm belief that it will be raised again, a spiritual body, on the morning of the great resurrection.

Item 2. It is my will and desire that my administratrix, herein after named, do pay all my just and legal debts, and if necessary to sell any property for that purpose, that she sell and dispose of such portion of my estate as she may think can be best spared.

Item 3. All the rest of my estate, real and personal, I give to my wife for life to be kept together and managed by, as she may think best, and at her death, it is my wish that it be equally divided between my two daughters Helen Beale wife of Thomas Beale, and Hibernia Dunn, the lawful heirs of either that may be dead to stand in the place of their deceased ancestor as aforesaid, in strict accordance with the laws of descent of Virginia, as said law now stands.

Item 4. It is my Will that my wife Rebecka B. Dunn do qualify as administratrix of this, my last Will and Testament, and that she be permitted to qualify, without giving security.

This is my Will, and intention thereof. I do hereby sign my name and affix my seal this 12th day of March 1880.
