

Being In the name of God Amen this coming the 1st day of June 1854 we the undersigned of Campbell County Georgia being well of sound mind and body and in perfect mind and memory and calling into mind the necessity of the body and that it is appointed for all men once to die do hereby and Ordain this to be my last will and testament in Order to prevent all dispute and controversy that might arise amongst my relations after my death for that purpose I do hereby appoint my wife Ann Phipps and John Smith of Campbell County Georgia as my Executors to pay my debts and to distribute my estate to my heirs as living and to be divided between my children and my wife as follows

[illegible]

For most. I have offered my property to my children. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired.
I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired.

When I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered
to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired.
I have offered to give them the property I have
acquired. I have offered to give them the property
I have acquired. I have offered to give them the
property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered
to give them the property I have acquired. I have offered to give them the property I have acquired.

I will then to my loving wife during the rest of her life and after her death to be divided amongst my children and my wife.
I will then to my loving wife during the rest of her life and after her death to be divided amongst my children and my wife.

I will then to my loving wife during the rest of her life and after her death to be divided amongst my children and my wife.
I will then to my loving wife during the rest of her life and after her death to be divided amongst my children and my wife.

I will then to my loving wife during the rest of her life and after her death to be divided amongst my children and my wife.

