

In the name of God amen I George Terry of Charlotte County being sick and weak in body, but of perfect sound mind and memory, calling unto mind the mortality of my body knowing it is appointed unto all men once to die, do make order and establish this my last Will and Testament. In the following manner, I am

Wit - First my Will and desire is that all my Just and lawful debts and my funeral charges be paid out my estate, by my exors, admors, and assigns. Secondly I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Terry when he becomes of age, a horse bridle and saddle of twenty pounds cost and a good bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever - Thirdly I give and bequeath to my daughter Sally Terry a horse bridle and saddle to the value of twenty pounds and a good bed & furniture to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she marries or becomes of age - Fourthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Fanny Terry, a horse bridle and saddle to the value of twenty pounds, and a good bed and furniture, to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she marries or becomes of age - Fifthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucy Terry a horse bridle and saddle to the value of twenty pounds and a good bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she becomes of age or marries - Sixthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Emily Terry a horse bridle and saddle of twenty pounds value and a good bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she becomes of age or marries - a horse bridle and saddle to the value of Twenty pounds and a good bed & furniture to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she marries or becomes of age — Fourthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Fanny Terry, a horse bridle and saddle to the value of twenty pounds, and a good bed and furniture, to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she marries or becomes of age.

Fifthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Lucy Terry a horse bridle & saddle to the value of twenty pounds and a good bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever, to be delivered to her whenever she becomes of age or marries — Sixthly I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Terry a horse bridle and saddle of twenty pounds value and a good bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever to be delivered to her whenever she becomes of age or marries — Seventhly I give and bequeath to my son William Buck Terry a horse bridle and saddle of Twenty pounds value, and a good bed and furniture to be delivered to him whenever he becomes of lawful age to him and his heirs forever. Eighthly I give and bequeath to my son Henry Buck Terry a horse bridle & saddle to the value of twenty pounds and a good bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever to be delivered to him whenever he becomes of age — Ninthly I lend to my late wife Fanny Terry all my titles (except the legacies before mentioned) for fifteen years of the three last as long as she lives and not more.

negroes I wish to be sold to the highest bidder at twelve months credit and the money paid to Interest until the fifteen years expires. the negroes I wish to be sold are named Hector, Bing, Bob & Sam Peter Childs & Amey. the other six negroes and their increase named Joe, Jan, Chas, Bob, duck & Julia with my land & all my other Estate both real and personal I lend to my beloved wife for fifteen years as above cited, if she shall live as long as I do not marry. but in case she marries she is only to have what the law allows her. But if she should die before the fifteen years expires, then it is my will and desire that my whole estate be sold - my land to be sold at two years credit, and then third of the money arising from the Sale of all my Estate to be equally divided among my seven children before mentioned, named Thomas, Sally, Fanny, Lucy, Anney, William and Henry to them and their heirs forever, to be delivered to them whenever the males arrives of lawful age and the female marries or become of
