Tuesday the thirteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and three about 9 o'clock Morning - This day Edward Goode requested us to take notice that it was his desire that his wife Jane should keep his estate and do as she pleased with it so long as she remained a widow but if she married she was to take her third - he also desired his Land might be sold in Rockland as quick as possible - he desired that his father and brother William might have the management of his estate and said he had spoke to his father on the subject and told him what he wanted done
