

The Central Gazette published in Charlottesville, Virginia

Marriages

Married- on Wed. last by Rev. Mr. Goss, Nathan C. Goodman to Miss Sarah T. Terrell, daughter of Mr. Joel Terrell, all of this county. Central Gazette Nov 19, 1824

Married- on Thurs. evening last, Mr. John Gates to Miss Ann F. Baily. Central Gazette Jan 1, 1822

Married-On Tues. last by the Rev. Mr. Hatch, Capt. Wm Horkins to Miss Rebecca Estes, all of this county. Central Gazette Jan 8, 1825

Married-on Tues. evening last, Mrs. Brightsberry Garth to Miss Elizabeth Graves. Central Gazette Jan 8, 1825

Married-on Friday the 28th ult., Mr. Lilburn R. Railey to Miss Lucy Jane Burks. Central Gazette Feb 8, 1825

Married-on Tues. evening last by the Rev. Mr. Hatch, V. W. Southall, Esq. to Miss Martha Cocke, daughter of Capt. James P. Cocke of this county. Central Gazette Feb 8, 1825

Married-Thurs. evening Mr. George Balthis to Miss Sarah A. Day, daughter of Mr. Charles Day, all of this county. Central Gazette Feb 8, 1825

Deaths

Communicated. Departed this life on the evening of the 20th ult Mrs. Polly Watson, consort of William Watson of Buckingham, in the 39th year of her age; she has left a large family to mourn her irreparable loss. In all the domestic and social ties of life, this lady, shon conspicuously, she was a member of the methodist Episcopal Church, and had an unshaken confidence in the merits of a once dying and risen Saviour. etc. Central Gazette Nov 19, 1824

Obituary. Died, suddenly on Fri morning the 14th inst about nine o'clock after eating breakfast as usual with his family, in apparently good health and spirits, Robert Goodloe Harper, Esq. of Baltimore. . . Gen. Harper was sixty years of age. . . Central Gazette Jan 12, 1825.