

I Thomas Collier of the County of Charlotte, sick and weak of body, but of sound mind and memory, knowing the Certainty of Death, and the Uncertainty of life, do make constitute and ordain, the following writing to be my last Will and Testament; — I give and devise to my dear beloved wife Francis the undivided use and occupation of the tract of Land and plantation, whereon I reside on the Horsepen Creek, during her Natural life; I also give to my said Wife, two negro Slaves named David and Sues during her Natural life. I give and bequeath to my said Wife Francis, my large bay Mare, one third part of my Stock of Cattle, Hogs & Sheep, and as much of my Household and Kitchen furniture, as she may in her discretion think proper to take for her Convenience, in which she is permitted to Judge.
It is my will and I do order and direct, that after the Death of my Wife the tract of Land and plantation whereon I now live and do devise to my Wife for life to be sold by my Executors for such price as may be had, and that the Money arising therefrom, be equally divided, between all my Daughters, meaning Elizabeth Anna, Patsy, and the Child my wife is now pregnant with if it shall prove a Daughter, meaning in that case, four equal parts, and to that and my Executors am directed am hereby authorized, to make a legal and proper conveyance in full compliance to the purchase. I further give and devise to my Daughter, as aforesaid, the equally divided, the value of Five hundred and forty seven acres of land more or less, which I possess in Kentucky on the branch of Chilbury Creek, and to that end do direct my Executors, to sell that land for the best price, that may be had, divide the money as aforesaid, and make and execute proper conveyances to the purchaser. I give and bequeath to all my sons first, Benjamin, John, Charles, Dabney and the Child with which my Wife is pregnant, in Case that shall bear a Son, my Tract of Land in the County of Fayette in the district of Kentucky, containing three thousand acres, held by patent, bearing date the 21st November 1786 to be equally divided, between them, to each their respective parts & to their heirs forever. It is my true intent and meaning, and declare it as my Will, that in Case the Child with which my Wife is now pregnant shall bear a Son, the part of two tracts of Land before devised to be sold, which is devised as a legacy to that Child, if a Daughter, shall be equally divided between my sons, so that my three Daughters now born shall each share my fourth part of those sales, and if there shall in my opinion part of those Sales, and if there shall be another son he shall share the remaining fourth part with his Brothers.

All the residue and remainder of my Estate of every kind including outstanding Debts and Contracts where there is any legal demand, after paying my just Debts I direct to be equally divided amongst all my Children including that my Wife is now going with. But in that division I direct that my Sons Benjamin & John, account each for an Horse before giving them at such Value respectively as my Executors in their discretion shall Judge, a Raitha as those two sons, are intended as two of my Executors, I desire that the price of those Horses may be estimated by my friend John Daniel.
I nominate, constitute and appoint my two sons Benjamin and John and my friend John Daniel Executors to this Will, declaring this to be my last Will revoking all others.

In Testimony whereof I do hereunto set my hand and affix my seal the Eightieth day of September one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven
