his Will

I Benjamin Brew of Charles City County, being in a weak low state of body, but of a sound and perfect sense & memory, do make this my last Will & Testament in the manner and form as followeth Viz.
Imps. I give unto my son Robert B. Brew, my land & plantation that lies over the long branch & cattails, being the land my Father gave me, & part of what I bought of Williams, which land I give to my said son & his heirs forever. — Item. I give unto my son Joshua Brew, all that tract of Land, and plantation called Macks, which I bought of Richard Bland, to him, and his heirs forever. — Item. I leave the use of the Land, & plantation, whereon I now dwell, to my five Daughters, viz. Sarah, Margaret, Miriam, Elizabeth, and Hannah, & my son Benjamin, equally between them, during their single lives, and his minority, and on his coming to the age of twenty one years, the said Land, & plantation, with ^{the} houses, to be equally divided between my aforesaid five daughters, and my son Benjamin, my daughters to have the use of one half during their single lives, or life, and after the marriage, or decease of all my said five daughters, I give the whole of the said land, & plantation, to my son Benjamin Brew, & his heirs forever. Item. I give to each of my abovesaid daughters, one feather bed, bedstead, and furniture, to be chosen by them according to seniority to them and their heirs forever. — Item. I give to my son Joshua Brew, on his coming of age, the sum of twelve pounds, to him, and his heirs forever. — Item. I give unto my son Benjamin Brew, on his coming to age, the sum of twelve pounds, to him and his heirs forever. Both which money legacies are to be raised out of my estate, and paid to my two —

Brayne Williams's Will

In the name of God, amen. I Brayne Williams, of the County of Charles City, and Parish of Westover, reflecting on the uncertainty of human life, do make and addin this writing to be my last Will, and Testament. Imprimis. I give and bequeath unto my Grand Son Brayne Williams Pryor, my Land and Plantation whereon I now live, with all its appurtenances therunto belonging, to him the said Brayne W. Pryor and his heirs forever, reserving the use of the said Land and Plantation to my son in Law Samuel Pryor during the minority, or belibey of my said grand son Brayne W. Pryor, but as soon as my said grand son shall arrive to lawful age, or marry, he the said Brayne W. Pryor shall have possession of the aforesaid Land, and Plantation in as ample a manner as if I had not given the use of the said Land to my son in Law Samuel Pryor, during the nonage or single life of my said grand son Brayne W. Pryor, but if my said grand son Brayne W. Pryor should die before he arrives to the age, of one and twenty years, and without heir lawfully begotten of his — body, then I give and bequeath my aforesaid Land, and Plantation to my grand Daughter Elizabeth Smallwood, to her and her heirs forever: Nevertheless my meaning is, that provided my grand son Brayne W. Pryor, should die before he arrives
