County of Charles City in the parish of Westover being in perfect mind and memory but weak in body do make and ordain this my last will and testament, utterly revoking all others, as a testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this ninth day of June One thousand eight hundred and five. Item I lend to my beloved wife Elizabeth for the love and affection I have for her during her natural life the following property to wit, Two negroes Joe and Kate, one feather bed and furniture two choice cows, one dark bindle work steer one young hide steer not broke to work, two sows with pig and five young hogs which property at the decease of my wife I give and bequeath to my son George to him and his heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath to my daughter Martha one negro girl named Delila and one bed and furniture to her and her heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath to my son Edward one negro girl named Judea one feather bed and furniture, and my gun called Moore, to him and his heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath to my son George one negro girl named Rachael and one feather bed and furniture to her who has been free. And lastly my will and desire is that all the residue of my estate (after giving the above legacies) be sold and the money arising therefrom to be applied to the payment of my just debts and what remains after paying my debts to be equally divided between my two sons Major and Benjamin. And I also constitute and appoint my son Edw. Manable and Edw. Walker, executors to this my last will and testament.
