Rebecca H. Locke's Will.

I Rebecca H. Locke, of Charles City County, Virginia, of perfect mind, and memory make this my last Will, and Testament in manner, and form following Impairies. — I give unto my grand Daughter Elizabeth Dray Tyler, and her heirs forever, every part of my estate real, and personal. —

2^d. It is my will, and desire that R. Locke Tyler may have, when she eighteen years old, Fifteen Negroes (the increase of those given by me) as near her age, as can be chosen. — It is also my wish, that if E. B. Tyler should die before R. Locke Tyler, she R. L. Tyler, and her heirs, may have Westbury, as well as the Negroes, mentioned above, forever. —

3^d. I give my Godson Andrew Forbes twenty five pounds, which he is to receive after my decease. —

4th. If it can be conveniently done, I wish to be laid along side, or rather near the remains of M^r. Locke, without parade or expence —

Lastly. I do appoint Executor, & Executrix to this my last Will Sam^l.
 Tyler, & Elizabeth Tyler of Charles City, as witness my hand, this tenth day of May. One thousand seven hundred and ninety two. —

Sealed, and delivered, in presence of

Benjamin Mountcastle,
Robert Mountcastle,
Samuel Mountcastle.

R. H. Locke,

At a quarterly Court, held for Charles City County, on Thursday, the 16th day of May, 1793. — The afore written last Will, and Testament of Rebecca H. Locke was proved by the oaths of Benjamin Mountcastle, and Robert Mountcastle, two of the witnesses thereto. And at a monthly Court held for the County aforesaid, the 18th day of July, in ^{the} year last mentioned, ^{the said will} was proved by the oath of Francis Mountcastle, the other witness thereto, and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of Samuel Tyler, the executor therein named, who made oath thereto, according to law, and together with John Tyler his security, entered into, and acknowledged their bond, in the penalty of Ten thousand pounds with such condition as the law directs. Testified to is granted him for obtaining a probat thereof in due form. Liberty is reserved for the executors therein named to join in the probate, as they shall think fit.

In the name of ^{God} Amen, I Mary Davidson of Charles City County

Mary Davidson's
Will - } in perfect sense, and memory, and calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, and that it is appointed for all persons once to die, First of all, I recommend my soul into the hands of almighty God, who gave it to me, and my body to be interred in christian-like manner by my Executors, hereafter mentioned, and, ^{as to} to what worldly estate it hath been pleased God to bless me with, I give and bequeath in manner, and form following

Imprimis First of all, my will, and desire is that all my Just debts be paid. — Item My will further is, that all my estate, be it of what kind soever should be sold, and the money, arising from the sale of the said estate, should be equally divided between all my children, to wit: Mary Major, William, & Elizabeth Davidsons, to them, and their Heirs forever; but in case either of my aforesaid children should die, before they come of the age of twenty one years, or Issue, that their part or parts should be equally divided between the survivors, to them, and their Heirs forever.

And lastly, I constitute my good friends, Furness Southall, and Henry Holman, Southall my whole, and sole Executors of this my last will, & Testament, revoking and disannulling all other Wills, heretofore made by me. In Witness my hand I seal this third day of December One thousand seven hundred and ninety. —
