Ann Barters
Will

In the name of God amen - I Anne B. Barter of Shiloh, in the County of Charles City, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but affected in bodily strength in such manner as to render all things in this life uncertain to me, do ordain this writing to be my my last will and testament. I promise it is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid - Item, I give and bequeath to my son Williams the whole amount of his debt to me on account of his proportion of the Marriage Settlement due from the estate of my deceased Husband - Item, I give and bequeath to my six children, Viz Ann H. Lee Catharine S. Berkeley, Bernard M. Williams, Lucy Burwell, and William Fitzhugh, equally, to be divided between them, to them and their heirs forever, all my estate whether in money Bank stock, bonds, or debts due, and which may be due - and whereas the circumstances of the Husband of my said daughter Anne H. Lee are such as to make it desirable that the above bequest in her behalf, be secured exclusively to her use, it is therefore my will and desire that the said bequest to her my said Daughter, be held by my above named son, Bernard M. for the use of her my said Daughter, free from the let. hindrance, Molestation, or claim of the said husband of her my said Daughter - Item, I give and bequeath to my above named daughter Lucy Burwell, to her and her heirs forever, my carriage, carriage harness, and pair of Bay horses. - Item, 'tis my will and desire that application shall not me made by my executors for the payment of any money which may be due me by my sister Lucy Skying - but that she shall receive the sum of two hundred dollars from the general fund of my estate - with this, I commend my soul to almighty God, and hereunto affix my hand and seal, this twenty ninth day of March in the year 1809.
