Ann Couplands
Will

In the name of God Amen: I, Ann Couplands do make and ordain this my last will and testament. It is my will and desire that all the property which I may possess at my death, or have a right to dispose of (except the Slave Tom hereafter mentioned) consisting chiefly of the Slaves and stock and the increase thereof conveyed by William A. Harrison administrator of Carter B. Harrison, and by Benjamin Harrison administrator of Benjamin Harrison deceased, to James Wilson and Stephen W. Trent as trustees, in trust for my benefit - it and subject to my disposal, be divided into nine equal parts and one equal ninth part I give and bequeath to each of my five children William R. Coupland, Benjamin H. Coupland, Davido C. Coupland, Carter Coupland and Alice Mosley Butler: The remaining four ninths I bequeath unto my sons William R. Coupland and Carter Coupland upon this special Trust and confidence that they will permit each of my married daughters Elizabeth B. Trent, Ann R. Randolph, Lucy H. Gay, and Susan Locke to have and enjoy during the term of their natural lives, the sole use and benefit of one of the said ninth parts respectively, the same not to be liable to the debts, or to the control of their husbands, and to go at the death of my said daughters to their children in such manner and in such proportions as they may by will or Deeds appoint and direct, and in default of such appointment the portion assigned, or held to the use of each of my said daughters to be equally divided among the children then may respectively leave..

I have already given a Slave to each of my children Benjamin H., Davido C., Carter and Susan. It is my wish that the Slaves thus given, the right to which I hereby confirm, should not be brought into the division; and that my said children notwithstanding the gifts aforesaid, shall have an equal portion of the residue of my said Slaves and other property, as before mentioned. I give and bequeath to my grandson Carter B. Harrison a negro boy named Tom. I nominate and appoint my sons William R. Coupland, Benjamin H. Coupland, Davido C. Coupland and Carter Coupland executors of this my last will. It is my wish that no security be demanded of them or either of them and that my estate be not appraised. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

Signed Sealed published and declared by Ann Coupland Ann Coupland (Seal)
