Re: W. Christian & Ans

Ann Dixon's Will

In the name of God amen, I Ann Dixon of Charles City County being of sound mind and disposing memory but recollecting the uncertainty of human existence do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say, I give and bequeath unto my dear and affectionate niece Christiana B Tyler daughter of the Honble John Tyler all my estate both real and personal be it of what kind soever, to her and her heirs forever reserving nevertheless to my Executors herein after named or such of them as shall qualify the power to dispose of my land if they should deem it more conducive to the interest of my said niece and to place the money arising therefrom at interest or so to dispose of it as will result most to her my said niece's benefit Item Believing that my estate has been greatly affected if not entirely saved by the care and attention of my brother who acted as executor to my husband my desire is that his accounts as executor of my husband may be returned to Court in the manner in which they stand on his books and that they be not liable to any further investigation. -

Well knowing the salutary effects of religion and morality on the habits and manners of every rational being I recommend with a motherly affection these considerations to my dear niece C. B. Tyler hoping that she will never forget the pious use of them in the height of prosperity and success which God gave her an ample share of and charity withall which is above price. -

Lastly. - I nominate constitute and appoint my brother John Tyler and his sons Nath and John Tyler my executors to this my last will and Testament. my brother not to give any security.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 8th day of June in the year of our Lord 1812—

Signed Sealed and delivered In presence of

William Tyler, Mary Eppes

Ann Brown, Mary H. Brown

Ann Dixon

At a Court held for Charles City County at the Courthouse the 19th day of November 1819— The aforementioned last will and Testament of Ann Dixon decd was proved by the Oaths of William Tyler and Ann Brown two of the dect. nexes to the same and Ordered to be recorded. — John Tyler one of the executors named in the said will personally appeared in Court and refused to take upon himself the burden of the execution thereof—
