In the name of God amen I Ann Willing Byrd of Westover in - Charles City County in Virginia being sound in mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament. - I request that after my spirit has quitted its mortal part, my body may at a proper time be committed to the earth in the grave yard at Westover if convenient. - Item, It is my wish that my dear and honored mother may use any part of the interest of my money she should think proper for her own comfort. - Item, I give to my beloved niece Mary Willing Page One hundred dollars. - Item, I give to my beloved niece Mary Willing Nelson One thousand dollars, and my silver piggion. Item, I give to my beloved niece Evelyn Byrd Page One thousand dollars and my silver tea pots. - Item, I give to my beloved niece Abby Nelson One thousand dollars, and my silver sugar dish. - Item, I give to my beloved niece Lucy Harrison the interest of a thousand dollars for her life, at her death I give the principal to her daughter Mary Willing Harrison. - I also bequeath to my dear Lucy Harrison the picture of my honored grand mama, and my silver cream pot. - Item, I give and bequeath to my dear adopted child Ann Rosalie Nelson One thousand thousand dollars on the Virginia Bank, and a thousand dollars in the hands of my friend and cousin Thomas Mayne Willing of Philadelphia, who has in trust for me five thousand dollars. - I also give my dear Ann Rosalie Nelson my bedstead, curtains, and bedding, my watch and its trinkets, my silver soup bowl, and all my tea spoons. - Item I give to my much loved sister Page my fruit knife as a very small memento of affection Item, I give to my beloved sister Harrison my right to Aunt Evelyn's picture, I also give her the miniature picture of our honored father, at her death, I give it to her dear daughter Ann as a mark of my affection Item, I give to my excellent brother Page the picture of my dearest mother, and sister Page. - Item, I give to my brother Richard my silver tea urn. - Item, whatever property I may have a right to dispose of, besides the above mentioned legacies I give equally to my three nieces Mary Willing Nelson Abby Nelson, and Ann Rosalie Nelson. - I wish my maids to have my common cloaths. -

Ann Willing Byrd

Nestover September 5-1812.-

At a Court held for Charles City County, at the Courthouse the 21st day of October 1812 The aforementioned last will and testament of Ann Willing Byrd deed was produced in Court, and there being no witnesses to the said will William Royser Elizabeth Royser and Nathaniel Nelson were sworn and severally deposed, that they are well acquainted with the testatrix's hand writing and verily believe the said will and the name there to subscribed to be wholly written by the testatrix own hand: Whereupon the said will was Ordered to be recorded. - And on the motion of Benjamin Harrison who made oath thereto according to law, and together with Richard W Byrd his security entered into and acknowledged aloud in the penalty of twelve thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs, Certificate is granted the said Harrison for obtaining letters of administration on said decedent's estate with her will aforesaid annexed in due form
