Philip S Lightfoot
Will

In the name of God. amen I Philip S Lightfoot being sick and infirm but of sound and disposing memory and mind do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament -

In the first place - I give and bequeath unto my wife Mary Ann Lightfoot such estate as by the Laws of the land she would be entitled to receive Right should I die without a child living at the time of my death, the One moiety of my personal estate and One third of my real estate and my earnest desire is that she shall be permitted to enjoy the same peaceably and quietly. - All the rest and residue of my estate together with such portion as my wife shall have not including such as by the law she will hold in fee simple at her death I give unto my nieces and nephews to each and every of them in equal portions Right the children of my sister Mary E. B. Blakely the son of my deceased brother William Lightfoot, the children of my deceased brother Frances Lightfoot and my deceased sister Ann Davis's children. - That is to say the residue of my estate after taking out my wifes lawful share or portion to my nieces and nephews aforesaid forthwith after my death and my wifes share or portion after her death. -

The above bequests to my nieces and nephews depends on this Condition that George Blakely shall demise any suit or suits which he may have brought against me or may hereafter bring against me for the purpose of recovering any portion of my estate and not revive the same
