In the name of God Amen I, <sup>Charles City County Virginia Wills 1789-1888 www.virginiapioneers.net</sup> Ingraham Gill of the County of Charles City being weak and sick in body but of perfect mind sound sense and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body knowing all men are once to die, I do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament. I give unto my loving wife Elizabeth Gill all my Land and Plantation whereon I now live, also my Negro Man Anthony and all my personal estate for and during her natural life or Widowhood and at the death or intermarriage of my said wife, I give and bequeath my Estate as follows. Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Turner Gill all my Land and Plantation as aforesaid unto him and his heirs forever, also I give to my said Son Turner One Gun, and One Bed and furniture to him and his heirs forever. Item. My will and desire is that all the residue of my estate real and personal be equally divided between my two Daughters to wit Martha & Rebecca Gill, which division I desire to be made after the death or intermarriage of my wife as aforesaid, which I give to my said Daughters and their heirs forever. Lastly I nominate, constitute and appoint my loving wife Elizabeth Gill Executor, and my friend William Graves Executor of this my last will and Testament.
