I Jacob Crew of Charles City County, being ill of body, but in perfect memory and mind and memory, and knowing the certainty of death, and uncertainty of life, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, revoking all former Wills and Testaments heretofore made by me in manner and form as followeth viz: Item. I lend the use of all my estate both real and personal unto my beloved wife Elizabeth Crew, during her natural life or widowhood, which may happen first, and at her death or marriage, which may happen first, my will is that my Sons then living should have all my land equally between them, but first my will is that if any of my sons should want to settle on my aforesaid land, that their Mother do not debar them from doing so, they not interrupting any part of the land that their Mother would want to till, the above said land, which I have given to my sons, I give to them and their heirs forever, and if any of my Sons should die before being possessed, with the above mentioned Land, and living heirs of their body lawfully begotten, my will is that they should have their Father's part, that he would have had, if he had been living. Item. I give to my Daughter Sally L. Crew Fifty Dollars cash to be paid her at her Mothers death, or marriage. Item. I give to my Daughter Susanna Brew One feather bed and furniture, and fifty Dollars cash to be paid her at her Mothers death, or marriage. Item I give to my Daughter Anna Brew, One feather bed and furniture and Fifty Dollars cash to be paid her as above, and further my Will is that if any of my daughters should remain single at the death of their Mother, that their Brothers do not debar them, or either of them as long as any one of them remain single from having a room in my house without any interruption, and would choose to stay at it, and after my debts are paid, and my Legacies receive their Legacies my Will is that what ever remains then, be equally divided between all my children, Sons and Daughters: and lastly I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth Brew Executrix, and John Brews Executor of this my last Will and testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty seventh day of the eleventh Month One thousand eight hundred.
