I James D Ladd of Charles City County being of sound mind and memory do make and ordain this instrument of writing to be my last will and testament in manner following, dated this day of the fourth month 1811. - Improv. - I lend to my dear and affectionate wife the use of the plantation (Montpelier) whereon I now live during her natural life, together with one half of my live stock of every kind, also one half of my household and kitchen furniture, and plantation utensils, my riding carriage and harness, the services of the black boys, Sam. Cesar and little Sam during their minority, she to give the latter one years schooling or learn him to read in the bible. - Item. - The residue of my estate both real and personal which is not above mentioned and loaned to my dear wife I desire may be sold, and hereby authorise and empower my executors hereafter hereafter to be named to convey all my title and interest in any landed or other property which they may think proper to sell, and that the money arising therefrom be placed at interest during my son Oliver's minority; And it being my sincere desire that my children may receive a pious and liberal education which I would prefer might be at friends school and when the education of the male part of my children is accomplished that he or they may be placed under some judicious friend to learn a useful mechanical business, and that my executors may be at liberty to use either principal or interest of my estate to defray the expences of their education. - Item, I give and bequeath to Lucy Larkie (an infant of my dear wifes raising) One hundred pounds to be paid her when she attains to lawful age or marries. - Item I give and bequeath the balance of my monied estate to be equally divided between my children to be paid them on their attaining to lawful age or when married. - Item I give and bequeath to my son Oliver at the death of his mother the plantation whereon I now live to him and his heirs forever, on condition however that he pay four hundred pounds in four equal annual payments, which I desire may be paid equally to such other of my children as may be living at that time. - Lastly I nominate and appoint my trusty and well beloved brothers Joseph Ladd, Benjamin H Ladd and William H Pleasants executors to this my last will and testament, and request that no security may be required of them for their faithful performance
