In the name of God Amen, I John Major of the County of Charles City being weak in body, but of usual mind and memory, do make this my last Will and testament in manner and form following to wit: - My Soul to God, who gave it me, and my worldly goods, which it pleased him to bless me with I dispose of as follows. 1st. I give and bequeath to my Son Edw. Major, and his heirs forever, George and Belia, and her increase, which Negroes are now in possession of the said Edward, and I also give unto my said Son Edward, all my lands, after the death of my much loved wife to him and his heirs forever, provided he the said Edward will fully discharge and release me from a claim which he has against me, as his Guardian, for a sum of money received by me of the representatives of his late Uncle John Marable: but in case of his refusal, I then subject the said lands, or a necessary part thereof to discharge the said claim with the interest that may be due thereon. 2nd. I lend my dear and much loved wife Martha all my lands - during her natural life, and every article of property I may be possessed of except that which may be necessary to pay my just debts, and which I may give to my respective Children by this instrument of writing. 3rd. To my Daughter Betty Burchett I give Bloo and her increase, which Negroes are now in possession of her Husband Drury Burchett to her and her heirs forever, and I also give her the bed and furniture, which I lent her at her marriage. 4th. To my Daughter Nancy Finch Mosley, I lend Hannah and her Children, and their increase, and after her death I give and bequeath the same to her child or Children, and their heirs forever, and I also give and bequeath to her the Bed and furniture lent her at her marriage. 5th. To my Daughter Betsey Marable, I lend Anaka, Sylvia, and Lavinia and their increase, and after her death I then give and bequeath the same to her Child or Children and their heirs forever. 6th. To my Daughter Maria Major, I give Nanny and her three Children, and their increase, when she shall reach the age of twenty one years, or marry, to her and her heirs forever. 7th. To my Son George Barnard, after the death of my dear wife, I give all the property (my lands excepted) of every kind lent to my said wife Martha during her natural life, to him and his heirs forever. 8th. My just debts, it is my will and desire may be paid by my executor, and Executor hereafter named, out of that Portion of my personal estate lent my wife during her life, and it is my hope that they will concur, and agree as to the property, which can be best spared for that purpose. 9th. To my Daughter Betsey Morable mentioned in the 5th item, I give the feather bed and furniture lent her at her marriage, and it is also my will that my wife give to my Daughter Maria mentioned in the 6th item a feather Bed & furniture out of that which I may have before assigned my Son George at her death. And lastly I constitute and appoint, as Executor and Executor, of this my last will and testament my dear wife Martha, and my Son Edward Major, In testimony whereof I have here set my hand, and had my seal affixed, this twenty eighth day of March One thousand eight hundred and seven.

Signed and acknowledged
