Many Bysides
Will. } In the name of God Amen I Mary Byrd of Westover of the County of Charles City Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament. I resign my soul into the hands of its unseeing Creator in full hope of its eternal happiness through the mercy of my God, and the mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and secondly I desire that my body may be privately buried by the grave of my dear husband. - Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Elmaria Rosmariden Page all my interest in ten shares of the Virginia Bank to enjoy the interest during her life; and to be equally divided at her death, between my dear Sarah Walker Page, Abby Page, and their four brothers. - Item. I give and bequeath to my said daughter M. R. Page the engravings which represent the offering of Abraham, and all other engravings she may choose to have, one excepted, all the furniture in my Chamber, except a bed, a mattress and a small Table, Chair, and a piece of shell work including the Cabinet, my bedstead and curtains (the feather bed and mattress I shall give to Richard, the other three articles I shall give to my 3 daughter Evelyn Page.) Item. I give and bequeath to my said daughter M. R. Page the red damask bed, and the

the bedstead belonging to it with the handsomest Virginia cloth counterpane not worked and blankets, and also the red and white chair covers.

Item. I give to my said daughter N. R. Page the portrait of her honorable father, and one of myself, and also one of the Duches of Montague, also two fire screens, and six of my longest and best table cloths, and one green chair.

Item. I give and bequeath to my daughter Evelyn Taylor Byrd Harrison my bible and new testament, and my cellaret with a green chair, and agreeably to her sister Anns wishes the portraits of her Aunt Evelyn, I thank God she and her children are well provided for.

Item. I give and bequeath to my amiable son John Page of Fredericks a portrait of his dear wife and myself.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Taylor Byrd one of his brother John, and one of himself, and also a green chair for the use of my very dear daughter his wife.

Item. I give and bequeath to my S. son Benj^a Harrison my set dining tables in the dining room at this time.

Item. I give and bequeath to Mrs Braxton the portrait of her father Mr Charles Carter, and also an engraving of a fine head which hangs between two windows in the North east room.

Item. I give and bequeath to my friend Mrs Ann Lee the picture of a little girl with which she was pleased, as a small token of my affection.

Item I give and bequeath to Mrs Eliz^a Randolph the portraits of Col^o Peter Randolph and his lady.

Item. I give and bequeath to Mrs Ann Corbin the picture of her mother Mrs Ellaria Beverley, as a small testimony of the esteem I feel for her.

Item. I give and bequeath to Miss Elizabeth Royster a negro man named Jack to her, and her heirs forever, and for whom I have had a bill of sale recorded. I also give her the bed on which she lies, bedding and the bedstead called Evelyns, with half a doz: chairs and one walnut dressing table, I also give her one hundred dollars.

Item. If Miss B. Royster should continue to live with me while I remain in this world, it is my wish and desire that my executors pay her three hundred dollars in addition to the above legacy, with my best wishes for her happiness.

Item. I will and bequeath to my son Charles Willing Byrd his mansted, to him and his heirs forever, I also give him my clock, a set of knives and forks with silver hatts, a set of Cutlers, the ladle and one doz: large table spoons. I also give my said son ten portraits to wit: Mr Walthe, one of Titian, one of Ruben, one of his S. father Byrd, and six of his particular friends viz: D^r Perry, Sir Walfred Dawson, D^r Oxford, the Marquis of Hallifax, the Duke of Argyle, and Sir Robert Southwell, it is my will and desire, that if my said son shall find it inconvenient to carry these portraits to his house, that they shall be equally divided between his two brothers, Richard, and William Byrd, and that a handsome silver Coffee pot, that will hold at least two pints and a half, with a Tea pot, be purchased and presented to him, by them, in lieu thereof.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son Richard Willing Byrd, Jack Perry, to him and his heirs forever. I also give him a pair of candle sticks, a quart mug, a salver, two salt sellers with their spoons, and all the table spoons, except one dozen as above mentioned, and two ragoul spoons, one marrow spoon, and a skewer. I also give my

my said son my urn (all these articles are of silver) being the particular desire of his sister. - Item. I also give my said son all my furniture in the south east room below, the pictures, clock, tea table china & petrification. Item. I also give my said son nine portraits to wit, his honored fathers picture at full length, it hangs in the passage, his G. fathers that hangs in the south east room below stairs, and the portraits of his first and second wife, and five of his particular friends and favorites viz^t Mrs Taylor, Lady Betty Southwell, J^r Eymont, Sir Charles Wager and Mr Brent. - Item. I give my said son his choise of a pair of horses, if all W. Nelson does not chuse to have a pair for the use of herself and sisters. -

Item. I give and bequeath to my son William Powl Byrd, Frank, and his wife Fanny, to him, and his heirs forever. - Item. I give and bequeath to my said son W. P. Byrd a pair of Candlesicks, a quart mug, a salver, a fish bowl, two ragoul spoons, one doz. desert spoons, together with a Candlesick which was his G. grandfathers, all of silver. - Item. I likewise give him a pier glass with the family Arms painted on it, I also give him two pair of Andirons, one of them belong to the dining, and the other to the S. West chamber below stairs. I also give my said son my best mattress, and best English ticken bed, bolster, pillows and bedding. -

Item. I give to my said son a pair of my best mules. -

Item. I give and bequeath to my G. daughter Mary Willing Nelson all my furniture in the North west room below stairs in addition to her own bedstead and curtains, and the picture of her papa, the larger. The new Virginia cloth bed ticken and the bedding, also the press in the passage up stairs, the best easy chair, the commode, a green chair to work on, a table that holds her petrification now standing in the South West room, and her bedstead now in my room. -

Item. I give and bequeath to my G. daughter Evelyn Byrd Page all my furniture in the South West chamber the pictures, Andirons and damask bed and bedding, I also give my said G. daughter my work table, chair belonging to it, a piece of shell work, two birds drawn by myself, and a set of china (green and white) the portrait of her aunt Shepwill, with six chairs of her chusing: herbed is now making up. -

Item. I give and bequeath to my G. daughter Abby Nelson all my furniture that belongs to the North West chamber up stairs, I also give her my wardrobe, and the picture of her uncle William Byrd the elder, with one of the pier glasses that hangs in the dining room, the tea table now in the S. East room below stairs, and her chest of drawers which belongs to the North West room, and one green chair to work on, and my second best Virginia tick bed, bedding and mattress. - Item I give and bequeath to my G. daughter Lucy Nelson the portrait of my honored mother, as I find it was the particular wish of my lament daughter, and my worked Counterpoint with the bedsteads and curtains belonging to the S. West room up two pair of stairs, with my press which now stands in the passage with two low bedsteads and beds to all three bedsteads. - Item I give and will on die from Liberty being reserved the other executor named on the probate will to join on the probate when they shall think fit And at another Court held for said County as aforesaid the 17 day of November 1815. On the motion of William Page another of the executors named on the said will who took the oath of an executor and with Benjamin Harrison and John Page and his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond on the penalty of one hundred thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs, Certificate is granted the said Page to be joined on the probate of said will bequeath to my daughter Ann Rosalie Nelson a pier glass which hangs in the dining room, also her choice of two lace bedsteads with feather beds and bedding four green chairs, I confirm the right given her by my daughter to her bedstead contains herse in the West chamber, with all its contents, the chest of drawers excepted which is the property of her sister all H. Nelson: I also gave her my silver slop bowl, and tea spoons and my small table. Item. It is my will and desire that my executors advertise and sell all that remains of that remains of the real and personal estate of my testator agreeably to his last will and testament. Item. It is my will and request that my executors retain so much from the sales of the personal estate of my testator, as shall be sufficient to discharge the balance of the debt due me from the estate as settled by the Com. messengers, on my administration account who were appointed by the Court of Charles City: I am undoubtedly the first creditor, having paid debt of the first dignity out of own estate, and such only have I brought into my account with the estate. Item. I give and bequeath to all my Sons the interest I have in the Tormal Swamp to be equally divided between them all. Item. It is my wish that my executors dispose of all my crops that may be on hand or may be growing (when severed from the land) and after reserving the money due me for principal and interest from the estate, and other outstanding debts the balance is to be divided into four equal parts. Item. I give and bequeath to my daughter Maria Rosemanden Page one fourth of all my property so divided. Item. I give and bequeath to my son Charles Willing Byrd of West Union Ohio, one fourth of all my property in the hands of my my executors. Item. I give and bequeath to my son Richard Willing Byrd of Smithfield one fourth of the above named sum. Item. I give and bequeath to my son William Rowel Byrd of Gloucester the remaining fourth part. Item. It is my will and desire that a reservation of the Church land be made when Westover is sold, I refer my executors to the green book of records. Item. It is my will and desire that my faithful maid Jenny Harris be emancipated whenever she may choose it, I give and bequeath to her a small bedstead, bed bedding and curtains belonging to it, and such of my wearing apparel as my children may think proper for her to have, I have the fullest confidence that they will not let her want any of the comforts of life Item. And lastly I appoint my sons John Page of Fredericks, Richard Willing Byrd of Smithfield, William Page of Fredericks and Benj Harrison of Buckley Charles City executors of this my last will and testament, to which I have assigned my hand and affixed my seal this of December one thousand eight hundred and thirteen
