Philip S Lightfoot
Will

In the name of God. amen I Philip S Lightfoot being sick and infirm but of sound and disposing memory and mind do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament -

In the first place - I give and bequeath unto my wife Mary Ann Lightfoot such estate as by the Laws of the land she would be entitled to receive Right should I die without a child living at the time of my death, the One moiety of my personal estate and One third of my real estate and my earnest desire is that she shall be permitted to enjoy the same peaceably and quietly. - All the rest and residue of my estate together with such portion as my wife shall have not including such as by the law she will hold in fee simple at her death I give unto my nieces and nephews to each and every of them in equal portions Right the children of my sister Mary E. B. Blakey the son of my deceased brother William Lightfoot, the children of my deceased brother Frances Lightfoot and my deceased sister Ann Davis's children. - That is to say the residue of my estate after taking out my wifes lawful share or portion to my nieces and nephews aforesaid forthwith after my death and my wifes share or portion after her death. -

The above bequests to my nieces and nephews depends on this Condition that George Blakey shall demise any suit or suits which he may have brought against me or may hereafter bring against me for the purpose of recovering any portion of my estate and not revive the same against my Executors should he however persist in prosecuting such suit or suits after my death, then the bequests to his children to be void and their portions to be divided among my other nieces and nephews as aforesaid. Item... My will and desire is that my faithful servant Cornelius shall at my death be free and entirely released from bondage. —

Item... My will and desire is that my friend Capt. William Hall for his care and attention to me be paid out of my estate the sum of Two thousand dollars which I give to him and his heirs forever. —

Lastly... I constitute and appoint James Harrison and Robert W. Christian esquires my Executors hoping that they will undertake this trust pay off all my debts for which purpose I subject all my estate, and see full justice done in the premises. —

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this 16th day of June 1819. —
