In the name of God Amen I Thomas Gill of the County of Charles city being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory, and conscious of the uncertainty of human life, and being desirous of disposing of what worldly goods it hath pleased God to bless me with to make, ordain and constitute this my last Will and Testament, revoking all others. That is to say, Item I do hereby affecionate wife Lucy Gill the use of the plantation whereon I now reside, together with my stock of Horses, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep, my Crops of grain of different Kinds, together with all my House-hold and Kitchen furniture as they now stand, during her life or Widuchood. —

Item I give to my four sons my land at the death of my wife to be divided among them in the following manner (that is to say) in four equal parts according to Value, having regard in such division to an equal allotment of my meadow lands among them; Giving to my son William Gill the preference of the lot on which the House I now live in may stand nevertheless I have expressly reserved for the use of my daughters one room below and one above stairs during their lives or marriage. —

Item I give to my three daughters one bed and furniture, to each of them, and their heirs forever. —

My Will and desire is that at the death of my wife, and after the payment of my just debts, that all the rest of my property be equally divided among all my children, share and share alike. — And lastly I nominate my sons William & Braxton Gill Executors to this my last will and Testament. —

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my seal the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and Ten
